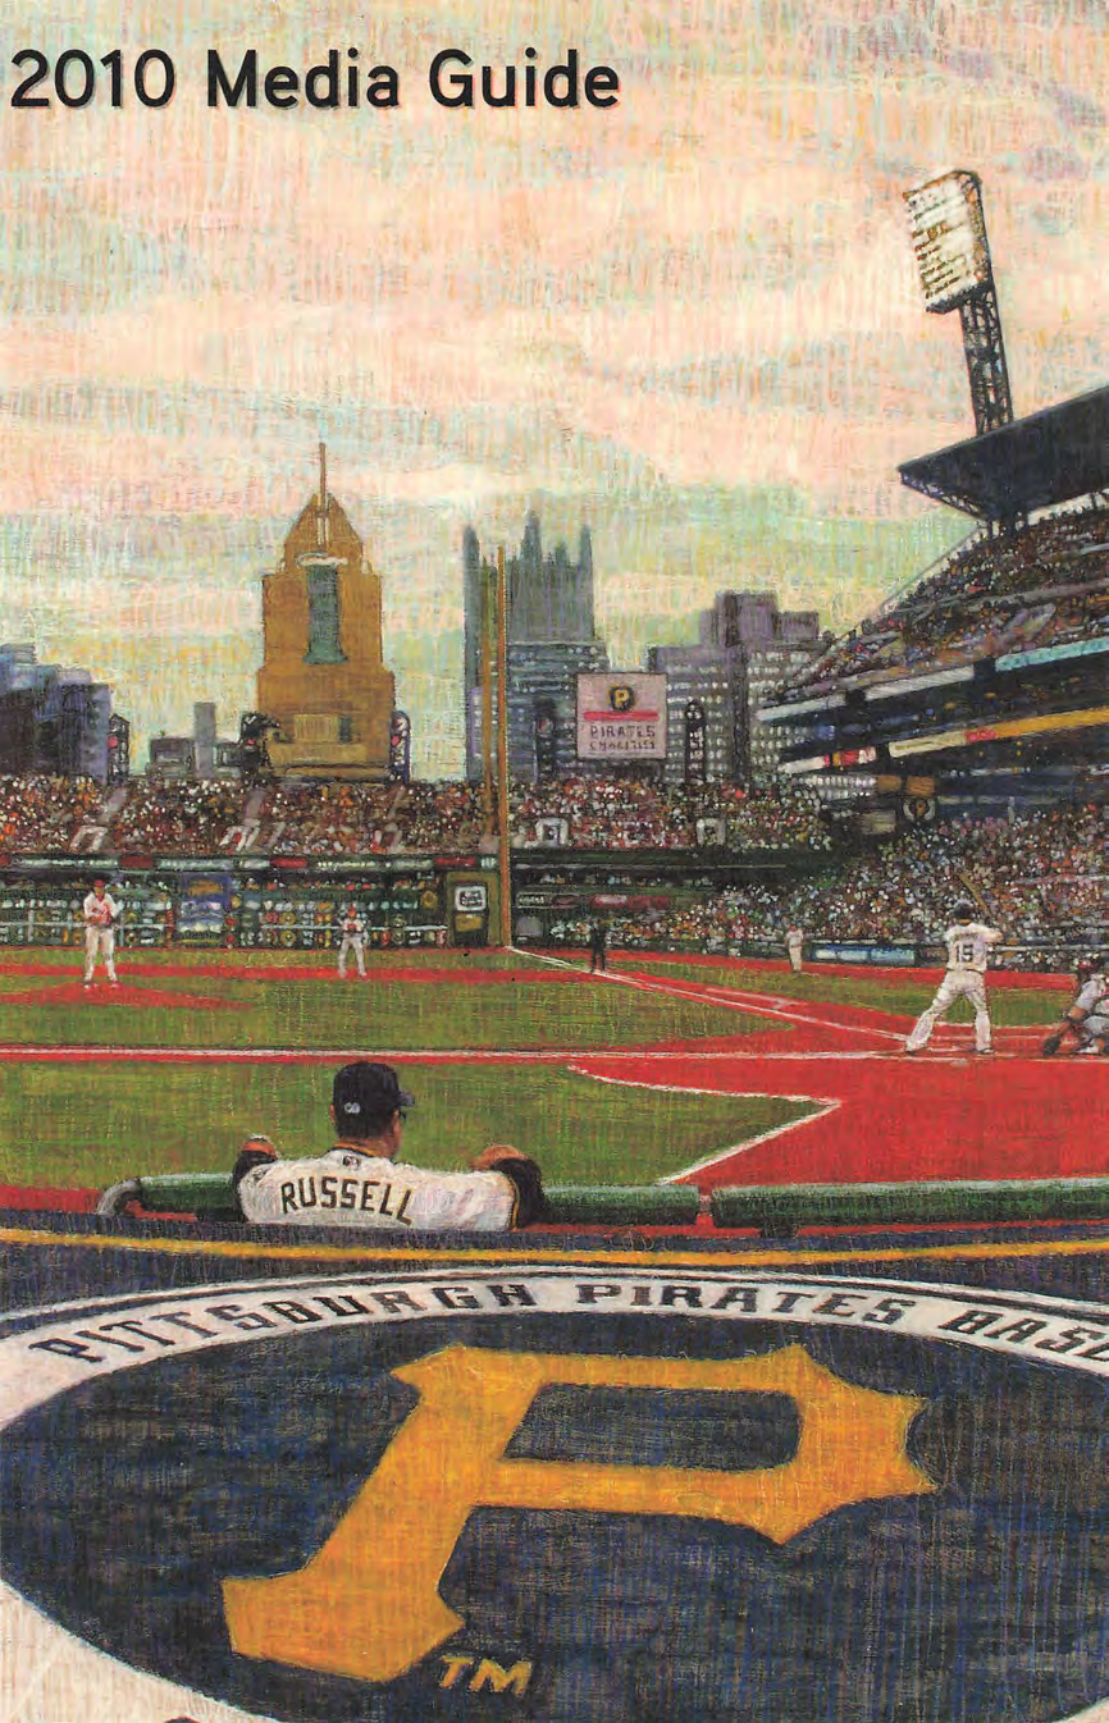
2010 Media Guide



Take me out to the ball game.

Take me out to the crowd.

Buy me some peanuts and Cracker Jack, and one of those cool jackets, and a program, and a foam finger (I love those things), and some nachos and a hot dog, no—two hot dogs, and a large soda to wash it down.

At the old ball game.

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHIES

BOB NUTTING

Chairman of the Board

Robert (Bob) Nutting serves as Chairman of the Board of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Bob assumed control of the club in January of 2007, thus becoming the sixth principal owner in the history of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He has served as Chairman of the Board and represented his family's interest in the club since 2003.

Upon assuming control of the organization, Nutting put a plan in place to overhaul the entire operation. In September of 2007, he appointed Frank Coonelly as the team's new president and, in-turn, Neal Huntington as the team's new general manager. Since that time the effort has been to build a strong foundation by investing in the core operations, while aggressively acquiring and developing talent.

Nutting further demonstrated his long-term commitment to the club by constructing the Pirates new training academy in the Dominican Republic. The new campus style training complex, which opened in April 2009 as one of the very best in Major League Baseball, will help the Pirates attract, retain and teach the best players, coaches and scouts in the Latin America region.

Nutting's family roots in the greater Pittsburgh region date back as long as the Pirates 123-year history. Under his leadership, the Pirates have made a commitment to making an even deeper positive impact in the community. In 2009, the Pirates and its newly formed philanthropic arm, Pirates Charities, assisted more than 2,000 community organizations. Also in 2009, Pirates Charities officially opened the new Pirates Charities Miracle League Field. The field, which is the first of its kind in the Pittsburgh region, is designed and dedicated to allow children with special needs to enjoy the game of baseball.

Nutting brings a long history of building successful organizations and a multi-generational commitment to the economic growth of the Pittsburgh region. He also serves as President and CEO of Ogden Newspapers, Inc., and Chairman of Seven Springs Mountain Resort; a four-season resort located 60 miles East of Pittsburgh.

PERSONAL: Robert M. Nutting...Born on 3/29/62 in Wheeling, WV...Wife's name is Leslie...Three daughters...Earned a B.A. in American History from Williams College in Massachusetts...Currently serves on the Board of Directors at the Carnegie Natural History Museum in Pittsburgh...Also serves as a board member and treasurer of the Newspaper Association of America...Is a former President of the West Virginia Press Association...Is committed to education through his service on the board and executive committee of The Linsly School, service on the board of Bethany College and as past Chairman of the West Virginia Independent Colleges & Universities...An avid outdoorsman and conservationist who was the driving force behind the Pirates "Let's Go Bucs. Let's Go Green" initiative to make PNC Park operations more environmentally friendly...Also supports various environmental programs, is a current vice chairman of the Nature Conservancy/West Virginia Chapter and a former Chapter President and current member of Trout Unlimited...Is a licensed commercial pilot and flight instructor, an avid fisherman and skier.

FRANK COONELLY

President

Frank Coonelly was named President of the Pittsburgh Pirates on September 13, 2007, and is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the organization. In this role, Frank leads the Pirates' senior management group and is accountable for the organization's success both on and off the field.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Frank served as Senior Vice President and General Counsel of Labor in the Office of the Commissioner of Baseball where he negotiated and administered collective bargaining agreements with the Major League Baseball Players Association and the World Umpires Association. Frank led a staff of attorneys who represented the Commissioner and the 30 Clubs in the litigation and arbitration of labor disputes and provided contract and economic advice and counsel to the 30 clubs.

Coonelly practiced labor and employment law as a Partner in the Washington, D.C. office of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius before joining the Commissioner's Office. A large part of Frank's practice consisted of the representation of Major League Baseball as outside labor counsel. In that role, Frank assisted the Commissioner of Baseball in collective bargaining and litigation matters. He also represented several individual Clubs, including the Minnesota Twins, Chicago Cubs, Montreal Expos and Atlanta Braves, in salary arbitration matters.

PERSONAL: Frank Coonelly...Born on 3/31/60 in Philadelphia, PA...Wife's name is Debbie...Four children; daughters Erin (22), Tara (20) and Kelley (19) and son Kyle (16)...Attended William Tennent High School in Warminster, PA, where he was captain of the ice hockey team...Graduated with high distinction from the Penn State University with a bachelor's degree in Public Service in 1983...Earned his JD from Catholic University Law School in Washington, D.C., where he earned the Faculty Award for graduating with the highest grade point average...In the community Frank serves on the Board of Pirates Charities, Allegheny Conference, Riverlife Task Force, Visit Pittsburgh and the U.S. Army Recruiting Battalion/Advisory Board - West...Also served as the Revenue Chair for the March of Dimes 2010 March for Babies.

NEAL HUNTINGTON

Senior Vice President & General Manager

Neal Huntington was named Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on September 25, 2007, thus becoming the 12th G.M. in the history of the club. In this role, he is responsible for the entire baseball operations department which includes overseeing the Major League club and scouting and player development systems.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Neal worked as a Special Assistant to the General Manager for the 2007 American League Central Division champion Cleveland Indians. In his role as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Huntington served as an evaluator and advisor for Cleveland General Manager Mark Shapiro, providing recommendations regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making. Neal also scouted major and minor league players and provided recommendations with respect to player evaluation, acquisition and retention. He also provided scouting evaluations on players within the Indians organization while doing advance scouting work for a portion of the Indians' opponents.

Huntington began his association with the Indians in 1998 as the Assistant Director of Minor League operations. In November of 1998, Neal took over as Cleveland's Director of Player Development. In that role he instilled a holistic developmental philosophy that focused on the systematic development of the person as well as the player. He also oversaw the Indians player development system, including Latin American Field Operations. After being promoted to the title of Assistant General Manager on November 1, 2001, Huntington assisted Shapiro in all areas of the day-to-day operation of the major league club, concentrating particularly in player evaluation, acquisition and retention.

Neal began his major league career in the Montreal Expos organization on June 1, 1992. He spent the 1994 campaign as the video advance scout for the Expos major league club and was then promoted to Assistant Director, Player Development after the 1994 season, where he assisted in all aspects of Montreal's Player Development system.

PERSONAL: Neal Alden Huntington...Born on 2/4/69 in Amherst, NH...Wife's name is Becca...Has two sons and one daughter...Was raised on a family-owned and operated dairy farm in Amherst...Played four years of baseball at Amherst College in Massachusetts, where he graduated in 1991 with a degree in Psychology...Was named a Division III second-team All-American first baseman and first-team All New England first baseman after his senior season...Also holds a Masters of Science in Sport Management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.

PATTY PAYTAS

VP Community & Public Affairs

Patty Paytas was named to the new position of Vice President of Community and Public Affairs on June 1, 2007 to lead the organization's increased efforts within the regional community. In this role, Ms. Paytas serves as Executive Director of Pirates Charities, the team's philanthropic arm. Since Pirates Charities inception, more than $1.3 million has been contributed to the community. Ms. Paytas also oversees the ballclub's strategic community relations, public affairs and minority outreach efforts. Previous to this appointment, Ms. Paytas was the Pirates Vice President of Communications since January 2002.

In 2007, Ms. Paytas was honored by the Women and Girls Foundation as a "Women in Sports: Leveling the Playing Field" award recipient and she was recognized by the Pittsburgh Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America's as their 2007 Renaissance Communicator of the Year. Paytas served as the overall coordinator for the 2006 MLB All-Star Game, working as the primary liaison between Major League Baseball and the Pirates organization. The five-day All-Star event generated significant economic impact for the Pittsburgh region, as well as worldwide media exposure.

Prior to her current stint with the Pirates, Paytas worked for Burson-Marsteller from 1994 - 2000. At Burson, she was a member of the Public Affairs Practice. Her experience included public relations, state and national trade relations, communication training, special event planning and educational workshop and seminar development.

During the construction of PNC Park, Paytas worked for Burson as a consultant to the Pirates on the public relations activities associated with the building of the ballpark, including the groundbreaking event on April 7, 1999. In recognition of these efforts, the Pirates and Burson-Marsteller received a national award, the 2000 CIPRA (Creativity in Public Relations Award) in the category of Sports Management.

This is Paytas' second tour of duty with the Pirates. She began as an intern in the Public Relations Department in 1981, became a full-time staff member in 1982 and was named the ballclub's first Community Relations Director in 1986. She remained in that position through the 1994 season. During that time, she coordinated the unveiling of the Roberto Clemente Statue at Three Rivers Stadium and was hospitality coordinator for the 1990, 1991 and 1992 post-season games, as well as the 1994 MLB All-Star Game.

PERSONAL: Patricia A. Paytas...Born in Butler, PA...Is a graduate of Butler High School, Butler County Community College and Slippery Rock State University...Is a member of the YMCA of Greater Pittsburgh Metropolitan Board of Directors and the Tickets for Kids Charities Advisory Board.

BASEBALL OPERATIONS BIOGRAPHIES

TYRONE BROOKS

Director of Baseball Operations

The 2010 season marks Tyrone Brooks' first year as a member of the Pirates Baseball Operations department. He was named to his current position on December 2.

In his current role, Brooks assists General Manager Neal Huntington in all aspects of Baseball Operations including rules compliance, arbitration preparation, transactions, budgeting and contract negotiations. He also provides recommendations regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making for the Baseball Operations department.

Brooks spent the last three seasons (2007-09) as a Professional Scout with the Cleveland Indians, with an emphasis on the Pacific Coast League, Texas League and California League while giving secondary Major League coverage.

Prior to joining the Cleveland organization, he spent 11 years working with the Atlanta Braves, most recently as their Director of Baseball Administration in 2006. He originally joined the Braves as their Baseball Operations Trainee in May of 1996 through the club's Career Initiative Program. Brooks also served the Atlanta organization as a Baseball Operations Assistant, Area Scouting Supervisor, Assistant, Player Personnel and Director of Baseball Operations.

Brooks is currently on the Board of Directors of the Midwest Scouts Association and is a member of the Buck O'Neil Professional Scouts and Coaches Association.

PERSONAL: Tyrone was born on 10/9/73 in Bethesda, MD, and currently resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Stephanie, and daughter Olivia (12/4/09). He is a 1996 graduate of the University of Maryland at College Park, where he double-majored in Accounting and Marketing. He was also a staff photographer for the Terrapin Yearbook and the highly-acclaimed student newspaper, The Diamondback, while attending college.

DAN FOX

Director of Baseball Systems Development

Dan Fox was hired as the club's Director of Baseball Systems Development on May 1, 2008. In this role, he is responsible for the architecture and development of information systems to support the Baseball Operations department in addition to providing quantitative analysis.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Fox worked with Baseball Prospectus and The Hardball Times as an author and weekly columnist. He was also employed as a software architect at Compassion International in Colorado Springs and prior to that as a software instructor, author, and consultant.

PERSONAL: Dan was born on 4/8/1968 in Davenport, IA, and currently resides in Mars, PA, with his wife, Beth, and two daughters; Laura (14) and Anna (11)...Earned a B.S. in Computer Science from Iowa State University in 1990.

BILL LAJOIE

Senior Advisor

Bill Lajoie is in his second season as a Senior Advisor to General Manager Neal Huntington. In his current role, he will assist the baseball operations department in the areas of professional scouting, trade consultation, player acquisition and roster moves. Before joining Huntington's staff, Lajoie spent three seasons in the same capacity with the Los Angeles Dodgers, a position to which he was appointed on March 1, 2006.

The 2010 season marks Lajoie's 57th in baseball as a player, coach, scout, front office member, and Major League General Manager. Prior to joining the Dodgers in 2006, Lajoie worked for the Boston Red Sox baseball operations department as Special Advisor to the General Manager/Scouting from 2002-05, which included the team's World Championship in 2004.

Before his tenure with Boston, Lajoie spent two seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers as Senior Advisor/Baseball operations in 2001-02. Prior to that, he was a special assistant to Braves General Manager John Schuerholz from 1993-2000 after joining the organization as a Major League and special assignment scout in 1991. During his time with the Braves, the team won nine division titles, five National League pennants and a World Championship in 1995.

Lajoie spent 23 years in the Detroit organization from 1968-90, including seven seasons as Vice President/General Manager from 1984-1990. In his first season as General Manager, the Tigers won the World Series in five games over the Padres, while the 1987 team he assembled captured the American League East Division title. Prior to ascending to the GM position, Lajoie was Detroit's Vice President/Assistant General Manager (1979-83), Director of Player Procurement (1975-79) and Coordinator of Scouting (1974).

After joining the Tigers as a scout in 1968, Lajoie served as manager of the Tigers' Rookie-level Bristol affiliate in 1969. He began his baseball operations career as a scout for the Cincinnati Reds from 1965-68.

Lajoie played outfield with the Montreal Royals and St. Paul Saints, both Dodger Triple-A affiliates, in 1957 while on loan from the Baltimore Orioles. He returned to the Dodger farm system in 1960 to play for the Atlanta Crackers, a Double-A affiliate, and in 1961 for the Omaha Dodgers, a Triple-A affiliate in the American Association.

PERSONAL: Bill was born on 9/27/34 in Wyandotte, MI...Resides in Osprey, FL, with wife Mary...Was a former teacher in the Detroit Public School system...Is a member of Western Michigan University's Sports Hall of Fame.

CHUCK TANNER

Senior Advisor

Chuck Tanner returned to the Pirates family when General Manager Neal Huntington hired him as a Senior Advisor on November 9, 2007.

Prior to rejoining the Pirates, Chuck spent five years as a Professional Scout with the Cleveland Indians. He spent the previous 11 years (1992-2002) with the Milwaukee Brewers baseball operations staff as a Special Assistant to the General Manager.

The New Castle, PA, native spent nine years as the Manager of the Pirates, capturing a World Series title in 1979. In his nine seasons at the helm (1977-1985), the Pirates posted a 711-685 record (.509 winning pct.) and six winning campaigns. Only Fred Clarke (16), Danny Murtaugh (15) and Jim Leyland (11) spent more years managing the team.

In 19 seasons as a Major League manager, Tanner compiled a 1352-1381 record. He began his managerial career with the White Sox in 1970, replacing Don Gutteridge in late September that year. After six seasons with Chicago, Chuck spent one year with Oakland (1976) before joining the Pirates in 1977. He spent his final three years as a big league manager with Atlanta, having been replaced by Russ Nixon on May 22, 1988.

An outfielder during his playing days, Tanner began his professional career with Evansville in 1946. After nine seasons in the minor leagues, he made his Major League debut with the Milwaukee Braves on April 12, 1955, and became the second player in history to hit a home run on the first pitch he saw in his first big league plate appearance. In eight seasons as a Major League player with Milwaukee (1955-57), the Chicago Cubs (1957-58), Cleveland (1959-1960) and the Los Angeles Angels (1961-62), Chuck compiled a .261 batting average, 21 home runs and 105 RBI in 396 games.

PERSONAL: Chuck was born on 7/4/29 in New Castle, PA...Has four sons; Mark (59), Gary (56), Brent (52) and Bruce (48)...Is a graduate of Shenango High School, where he was a 10-letter star in baseball, basketball and football...Son Bruce pitched in the major leagues with the White Sox in 1985 and was the Pirates Bullpen Coach for five seasons (2001-05)...Received the "Pride of the Pirates" award in 1995, a yearly honor (since 1990) which recognizes a member of the Pirates family who has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service.

PIRATES IN THE COMMUNITY

Pirates Charities is committed to strengthening the community by supporting organizations and programs aimed at improving the lives of children and adults in the greater Pittsburgh region. Pirates Charities places a special emphasis on supporting youth programs focused on health, fitness, and education by developing partnerships with those who share in our mission.

Pirates Charities is the official philanthropic arm of the Pittsburgh Pirates. The team has a long and proud tradition of providing support and assistance to those in need through a multitude of community relations programs and initiatives. The creation of Pirates Charities has helped to focus the ballclub's charitable efforts, allowing the Pirates to make an even greater impact in the community.

Since its inception in the Fall of 2006, Pirates Charities has contributed more than $1.3 million to worthwhile projects and programs in the greater Pittsburgh region, our Spring Training home of Bradenton, Florida and in Estorga, Dominican Republic where our new Latin American headquarters is located.

2009 PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

josh gibson field grand opening

The renovated Josh Gibson Field was opened on May 30, 2009 and is now home to the Josh Gibson Foundation youth baseball program. The funding for the project was provided by Pirates Charities, the City of Pittsburgh, Baseball Tomorrow Fund, Del Monte Foods and The Grable Foundation.

The renovated complex features two new grass infields, a restored shared outfield, new pitcher's mounds, dugouts, bleachers, an electronic scoreboard, a field sprinkler system, a concession stand that includes ADA compliant restrooms and a baseball equipment storage area. Perimeter fences were repaired and field maintenance equipment was also provided. The PNC Park Grounds Crew visited the field throughout the renovation to provide assistance and instruct Gibson Foundation volunteers on how to maintain the field.

fields for kids matching grant program

The Pirates Charities Fields for Kids program was launched in January 2009, and provided $1,000 to $5,000 matching grants to area youth baseball and/or softball organizations for the improvement of their playing facilities. A total of 27 youth baseball/softball organizations, representing 13 counties, received grants totaling more than $105,000.

Pirates Charities funding partners were Pirates catcher Ryan Doumit and The Grable Foundation.

2010 "Fields for Kids" matching grant applications can be found on www.pirates.com/piratescharities.

pirates charities miracle league field grand opening

The Pirates Charities Miracle League Field in Cranberry Township was opened on May 16, 2009. The field is specially designed for children with special needs, and is the first of its kind in the greater Pittsburgh region. More than 200 children participated in the first year of this remarkable program.

Pirates Charities donated $200,000 toward the construction of the field, which included a $50,000 contribution from former Pirates second baseman Freddy Sanchez and his wife Alissa.

"Nothing makes this project more rewarding for me personally than to see the smiles on the faces of these children as their proud parents and loved ones look on. It is what the Pirates Charities Miracle League Field is all about," said Pirates Chairman Bob Nutting.

pittsburgh fallen heros fund

Pirates fans, players and Front Office employees collected $76,103 for the Pittsburgh Police Department's Fallen Heroes Fund during the 2009 Home Opener and through an online auction on Pirates.com. The funds were donated to assist the families left behind by fallen Pittsburgh police officers Eric G. Kelly, Stephen J. Mayhle and Paul J. Sciullo II.

norma lloyd field renovation

Pirates Charities joined the Rays Baseball Foundation to renovate two youth baseball fields within Norma Lloyd Park in Bradenton, Florida. These fields are used by the Jr. RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) Program of Bradenton.

The renovated complex, in which one field is branded "Pirates Field" and the other "Rays Field", features updated dugouts, new fencing and backstops, new sod, repaired bleachers, soffit repairs, siding repairs, new paint, benches and infield clay, outfield windscreens and the replacement of restroom doors and doorframes.

Former Pirates pitcher Matt Capps contributed $50,000 to the project and additional funds were raised through the 2009 Pirates Charities Annual Spring Training Golf Classic and several in-park silent auctions at McKechnie Field.

madre laura education center

Pirates Charities, with the generous support of Jose Mella (who designed and built the club's new Latin American headquarters), provided funding for significant improvements to the nearby Madre Laura Education Center. In Spring 2009, a new dining hall and main classroom were completed and a perimeter wall was built around the school complex. New computer equipment, desks and overhead projectors were contributed as well.

To assist in the safe transportation of students, Pirates Charities also purchased a used school bus for Madre Laura from the School District of Manatee County, Florida, the Pirates Spring Training home. The Manatee School District also generously donated kitchen stoves and cooking equipment to the school.

Additional non-profit organizations who received financial support from Pirates Charities in 2009 included:

- Pittsburgh RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities)/Boys & Girls Clubs of Western PA
- Alzheimer Association of Greater Pennsylvania
- Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Pittsburgh
- Gilda's Club of Western Pennsylvania
- Pittsburgh Kids Foundation
- Pittsburgh Project
- West Penn Hospital Summer Camp for Burned Children
- Tickets for Kids Charities
- Pirates "Educations Days" program (underwritten in part by the PPG Industries Foundation)

FUNDRAISING

Pirates Charities projects and programs would not be possible without the generosity of our many donors. Here are just a few ways Pirates fans, corporate partners and employees helped to raise funds throughout the year.

annual pirates charities golf classic

The fourth annual Pirates Charities Golf Classic, presented by West Penn Allegheny Health System, was held in August at the renowned Fox Chapel Golf Club. There, participants spent the day playing golf with current and former Pirates players, broadcasters, and front office executives while supporting Pirates Charities. Pirates President Frank Coonelly was joined by Dr. Christopher T. Olivia, President and CEO of West Penn Allegheny Health System, as the tournament co-chairs. The Golf Classic netted more than $100,000.

The 2010 Pirates Charities Golf Classic is scheduled for Monday, July 26 at the Fox Chapel Golf Club.

annual pirates charities on-FSN auction

In June, the Pirates and broadcast partner FSN Pittsburgh hosted the second Pirates Charities On-FSN Auction. Through the strong support of Pirates fans across the country, the auction raised $76,100 and received more than 500 bids from 18 states.

"The incredible success of the auction in these difficult economic times demonstrates again the remarkable generosity and compassion of Pittsburghers and Pirates fans everywhere," said Pirates President Frank Coonelly. "I want to thank FSN for devoting its airtime, talent and endless energy to make this auction one of our largest fundraisers."

pirates charities sporting clays invitational

Pirates Charities hosted the inaugural Pirates Charities Sporting Clays Invitational in September at Seven Springs Mountain Resort's beautiful new sporting clays complex. Over 160 people participated in two different flight sessions during the all-day event, which was hosted by award-winning clay shooting instructor Michael Mohr.

Bob Nutting, Pirates and Pirates Charities Chairman, and Dr. Patrick DeMeo, Chairman of the Department of Orthopedic Surgery of Allegheny General Hospital, co-chaired the event that raised more than $40,000.

Sponsors included Cabela's, West Penn Allegheny Health System Department of Orthopedic Surgery, Seven Springs Mountain Resort and Steptoe & Johnson.

The Second Annual Pirates Charities Sporting Clays Invitational is scheduled for Monday, September 20, 2010.

pirates charities "casino night"

Pirates Manager John Russell and his wife Jamie hosted the first Pirates Fabulous Casino Night in August, to benefit the Alzheimer Association in memory of Jamie's grandfather David Fitzgerald. The event was sponsored by Wheeling Island Hotel, Casino and Racetrack. Fans had the chance to roll the dice with their favorite Pirates players, coaches, alumni, broadcasters and other local sports celebrities.

$28,000 was raised and donated to the Alzheimer Association of Greater PA by John and Jamie Russell and President and General Manager of Wheeling Island, Jim Simms.

"bowling with the bucs"

The 5th annual "Bowling with the Bucs" fundraiser took place in May at AMF Noble Manor Lanes in Crafton. Thirty-two Pirates players, coaches and broadcasters put on their bowling shirts and shoes for the event. Throughout the evening, plenty of strikes were thrown and fans went home happy after getting to meet, talk with and get autographs from their favorite Pittsburgh Pirates.

More than $15,000 was raised for Pirates Charities and the Pittsburgh Project.

PLAYER INITIATIVES

Many Pirates players went above and beyond the call of duty to help Pirates Charities with fundraising efforts.

ramon vazquez

Contributed $12,500 to Pirates Charities.

paul maholm

Paul and his wife Jessica contributed $25,000 to Gilda's Club of Western Pennsylvania for the development of a teen program designed to assist young people whose lives have been affected by cancer. In addition to financially supporting the organization, Paul and Jessica volunteered their time throughout the season to help and support Gilda's Club members.

ryan doumit

Donated $25,000 to the Pirates Charities "Fields for Kids" program.

Youth baseball and/or softball organizations throughout our region benefitted from this program that provides matching grants to be used for playing facility improvements.

zach duke

Along with his wife Kristin, Zach co-chaired the annual Players for Kidz Gala that benefitted the Pittsburgh Kids Foundation. Zach also spearheaded the Pittsburgh Project VIP program where he hosted a series of events at PNC Park for children from the Pittsburgh Project.

andy laroche

Piloted the Down Syndrome VIP program where area children with special needs were invited to participate in a VIP experience at PNC Park that included watching BP from the Pirates dugout and spending time on the field playing catch and practicing their hitting with Andy.

PIRATES COMMUNITY COMMITMENT PROGRAM

2009 marked the second year for this unique player program. All Pirates Minor League players are required to perform at least 10 hours of community service each season.

A total of 2030 hours of service were completed last season.

In September 2009, one player from each minor league team came to Pittsburgh and was recognized for leading his respective team in community service. Those players were:

- Larry Broadway (Indianapolis Indians - AAA)
- Jason Delaney (Altoona Curve - AA)
- Josue Peley (West Virginia Power - A)
- Jared Keel (Lynchburg Hillcats - A)
- Mike Williams (State College - short season)
- Bradley Clapp (GCL Pirates - Rookie League)
- Gavi Nivar (Dominican Summer League)

MINORITY-FOCUSED PROGRAMS

Throughout the season, the Pirates host a variety of community programs that focus on developing partnerships with minority-focused organizations and continuing to celebrate the great tradition of Negro League baseball in Pittsburgh.
Included in our 2009 programs was the Annual Heritage Day Luncheon that featured author Larry Tye as the guest speaker. Mr. Tye recently wrote a biography of Negro League legend Satchel Paige.

The Pirates also instituted in 2009, the Community Champion Awards that were presented on the field during a pregame ceremony to local individuals recognizing them for their important, positive contributions to the betterment of the diverse community in our region.

The Pirates partnered with Davis Vision and United Concordia to again provide a free vision and dental screening clinic for area youth who have minimal insurance coverage or no health coverage at all. More than 150 youth participated.

INDIVIDUAL DONOR GIVING PROGRAMS

We appreciate each and every donation made to Pirates Charities throughout the year. Thank you to Pirates fans everywhere for helping us to support many worthwhile charitable organizations who make invaluable contributions to our community.

scoreboard message program

Each time a Pirates fan requested a special occasion message to be displayed on the PNC Park scoreboard, a donation was made to Pirates Charities. In 2009, more than $39,000 was generated through this fan-favorite program.

If you would like to order a scoreboard message for a 2010 Pirates home game at PNC Park, please visit www.pirates.com/piratescharities or call 412.325.5992.

"shirts off our backs" raffle

During the Saturday, August 8th Pirates home game versus the St. Louis Cardinals, everyone in attendance had the opportunity to purchase a $2 raffle ticket for the chance to win a jersey right off a Pirates player's back immediately following the game. The lucky winners went on the field after the game, where they were greeted by the team. Each player personally autographed their jersey for the winners.

memorabilia auctions

In-park silent auctions, on special dates throughout the season, fans attending home games at PNC Park bid on Pirates and other sports memorabilia during Pirates Charities in-park silent auctions located right outside the Home Plate Guest Relations Office on the ballpark's Main Concourse. In 2010, in-park silent auctions will be held every Saturday night.
24/7 online auctions - fans also had the opportunity to bid on Pirates memorabilia 24/7 via the www.pirates.com online auction.

John Russell was named manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on November 5, 2007, becoming the 38th manager in the organization's 123-year history.

In his two seasons with the Pirates, Russell has guided the Pirates to a 129-194 record. The Bucs went 40-41 at home in 2009, improving upon their 39-42 record at PNC Park from a year earlier. Also in 2009, the Pirates led all Major League teams in fielding percentage and the pitching staff lowered its ERA from 5.08 to 4.59 while issuing close to 100 fewer walks. In 2008, Russell's club posted a National League-best 50-2 record when leading after seven innings; second only to the New York Yankees record of 73-2. In addition, the 2008 Bucs went 22-21 in one-run games (13-7 at PNC Park) and 12-6 in extra-inning contests, sharing the Major League lead in extra-inning victories with the Milwaukee Brewers.

Russell caught for the Phillies from 1984-1988

Prior to joining the Pirates, Russell spent two seasons as the Triple-A manager in the Philadelphia organization. He was named the International League Manager-of-the-Year after guiding Scranton/Wilkes-Barre to an 84-58 record and the Northern Division title in 2006. For his efforts in 2006, John served as manager at the 2007 International League All-Star Game. He spent the 2007 campaign managing Ottawa, the Phillies entry in the International League.

John began his career as a manager in the Minnesota organization, where his teams posted five winning seasons in his eight years. He was named 2002 Minor League Manager-of-the-Year and "Best Managerial Prospect" by Baseball America after his Edmonton club captured the Pacific Coast League crown. Russell was also tabbed as the Eastern League's "Top Managerial Prospect" by Baseball America after guiding the New Britain club to an 81-58 record and a first-place finish in 1998. In 10 seasons as a minor league manager, Russell compiled a 666-667 record and three division championships.

This is Russell's second tour of duty with the Pirates, as he served as the club's Third Base Coach and Major League catching instructor for three seasons (2003-05).

In addition to his major and minor league managing career, John also led the Phoenix Desert Dogs to a 25-19 record and a 2nd-place finish in the Arizona Fall League in 2002 and was managing Peoria in 2007 when he was officially named manager of the Pirates. Russell also managed in Venezuela during the 2006 offseason and led the Maracaibo team to the playoffs for the first time in six years.

Originally selected by the Phillies in the first round of the 1982 June draft, the former catcher made his Major League debut in 1984. He played in a total of 448 big league games with Philadelphia (1984-88), Atlanta (1988) and Texas (1990-93). John caught Nolan Ryan's sixth career no-hitter on June 11, 1990. Primarily a catcher, Russell also made appearances at first base, third base and in left field and right field. He also made one professional pitching appearance on 6/25/89, retiring the lone batter he faced (Gerald Young popped out).

#10 third base coach TONY BEASLEY

AGE: 43
BORN: 12/5/66 in Fredericksburg, VA
RESIDES: Ruther Glen, VA

APPOINTED: 11/20/2007
POSITION PLAYED: INF

Tony Beasley was named Third Base Coach of the Pirates on November 20, 2007. In addition to those duties, he will serve the club as its base running instructor and the hitting-bunting coach for the pitchers.

The 2010 season marks Tony's 18th with the Pittsburgh organization. He spent the 2007 campaign as the club's Minor League Infield Coordinator and was instrumental in prospect Neil Walker's transition from catcher to third base during spring training.

This is Beasley's second stint as a Major League Third Base Coach, as he worked in the same capacity for the Washington Nationals under Manager Frank Robinson in 2006.

Beasley was manager of the Pirates AA-Affiliate, Altoona Curve, in 2004 & 2005

Beasley spent five seasons as a manager in the Pirates farm system, guiding his club to the post-season in all five years and a combined record of 372-258 (.590 winning pct.) during the regular season. He was tabbed by Baseball America as the Double-A Manager-of-the-Year in 2004 after guiding Altoona to the Eastern League Championship Series (his team lost to New Hampshire). Tony also served the United States as a coach at the MLB Futures Game in Houston during All-Star week in 2004.

Tony began his managerial career with Williamsport in 2001 and led the club to a 46-26 regular season record and a first-place finish; the club was declared co-champions of the New York-Penn League along with Brooklyn. He was named Low Class-A Manager-of-the-Year by Baseball America in consecutive seasons with Hickory in 2002-03 and to the South Atlantic League's mid-season All-Star squad in 2003. Tony guided the Crawdads to the SAL championship and the fifth-best record in the minors in 2002 and was also selected to the league's post-season All-Star Team.

In addition to his regular season managerial duties, Beasley also managed the Mesa Desert Dogs during the Arizona Fall League in 2004 and guided the club to an 18-13 record and a first-place finish in the National Division (his club lost to the Mesa Solar Sox in the Championship Series). After serving as a player/coach at Carolina (AA) and Lynchburg (A) in 1998, Tony began his full-time coaching career as the Hitting Coach with the GCL Pirates in 1999. He worked in the same capacity with Lynchburg in 2000.

#60 bullpen coach LUIS DORANTE

AGE: 41
BORN: 10/25/68 in Estado Falcon, Venezuela
RESIDES: Weston, FL

APPOINTED: 11/20/2007
POSITION PLAYED: C

Luis Dorante is in his third season as the Pirates Bullpen Coach, having joined the Major League staff on November 20, 2007. He served the Florida Marlins in the same capacity during the 2005 campaign.

A highlight of Dorante's 2009 season came when he was Albert Pujols' pitcher during the Home Run Derby prior to the All-Star Game in St. Louis in July.

Dorante spent the 2007 season as the Manager at Jupiter, the Marlins Class-A affiliate in the Florida State League. He also managed in the Dominican Republic during the 2007 off-season.

Prior to managing Double-A Carolina in 2006, Dorante spent three seasons at the helm with Jupiter. In that time, he produced a 221-190 record, which included an 81-57 mark in 2002, the most victories by Jupiter in a single season. Luis led the Hammerheads to the playoffs twice in those three seasons. In 2003, he led the club to a combined 76-62 record, which included a 42-28 mark and a first place finish in the first half. Luis shared post-season Manager-of-the-Year laurels in both 2002 and 2003.

Dorante participated in Dick's Sporting Goods Back-to-School program

Dorante began his managerial career in the Montreal Expos system in the Gulf Coast League in 1995. He was a coach with the GCL Expos in 1996, a club which posted a league-best 41-18 record and a first-place finish, only to lose in the first round of the playoffs. After three seasons with the GCL Expos (also managed in 1997), he led Cape Fear to an overall record of 80-61 and a post-season appearance in 1998. Luis also managed Jupiter in 1999 and 2000 while the club was affiliated with Montreal.

In 11 seasons as a minor league skipper, Dorante led his team to the playoffs four times and compiled a record of 671-696.

Primarily a catcher during his playing days, Luis also made appearances at first base, third base and in the outfield during his six-year minor league career. He played a total of 221 games from 1987 thru 1993 in the Boston organization after being signed as a non-drafed free agent on 9/15/86. Dorante missed the 1992 season, but finished his playing career as a player/coach with Ft. Lauderdale in 1993.

Following his playing career, Dorante joined the Expos organization and worked as a Venezuelan scout in 1994.

PERSONAL: Luis Alberto Dorante...Wife's name is Solange...Has two children; son Luis Alberto (10/21/90) and daughter Valeria (4/30/96).

#12 first base coach CARLOS GARCIA

AGE: 42
BORN: 10/25/67 in Ciudad Bolivar, Venezuela
RESIDES: Depew, NY

APPOINTED: 10/30/2009
POSITION PLAYED: Infield

Carlos Garcia joined the Pittsburgh coaching staff on October 30, 2009. In addition to his duties as First Base Coach, he will serve the Major League club as its Infield Instructor.

Garcia spent the last two seasons as Pittsburgh's minor league Infield Coordinator; spending part of the final month of the 2009 season with the big league team in Pittsburgh. He also managed Navegantes del Magallanes in Venezuela this past off season. His club posted a 41-22 regular season record and advanced to the Championship Series, but lost, four games to three, to Caracas.

Prior to returning to the Pirates in 2008, Carlos spent the previous three years (2005-07) as Seattle's Third Base Coach and Major League Infield Instructor. Under his supervision, the Mariners led the American League in fielding percentage in 2005 and finished among the top five in 2006 and 2007.

Garcia served the Cleveland Indians organization as its hitting and infield coach with Triple-A Buffalo in 2003-04 after spending the 2002 campaign as a player-coach with the club.

A former infielder, Garcia spent parts of 13 seasons in the Major Leagues with Pittsburgh (1990-96), Toronto (1997), Anaheim (1998) and San Diego (1999). He made his Major League debut with the Pirates on 9/20/90 and singled as a pinch hitter off Bill Long at Wrigley Field in his first big league plate appearance that afternoon. Carlos made one appearance during the 1992 N.L.C.S. against Atlanta and hit a career-high 12 home runs with the Bucs in 1993; his first career homer was an inside-the-park job off Orel Hershiser at Dodger Stadium on 4/16/93.

One of the highlights of Garcia's career was being named to National League All-Star team while playing for the Pirates in 1994. The game was played at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh and Carlos received a warm reception from the fans during pre game introductions that night (he entered the game in the 4th inning at second base and went 1-for-2 at the plate). Among his other highlights were a 21-game hitting streak in 1995 and hitting the 8,000th home run in Pittsburgh Pirates history on 4/13/96.

Garcia was traded to Toronto as part of a nine-player deal on 11/15/96 and appeared in 103 games with the Blue Jays in 1997. He spent the 1998 season between Anaheim and Triple-A Vancouver and played most of the '99 campaign with Las Vegas (Padres' AAA). Carlos compiled a .266 batting average (580-for-2178), 33 home runs, 197 RBI and 73 stolen bases in 610 big league games, playing in his last Major League game with San Diego on 4/15/99.

Garcia played with the Pirates from 1990-1996

PERSONAL: Carlos Jesus Garcia...Wife's name is Cathy...Has three children; son Carlos Jr. (9/5/95) and twins Isabel and Emanuel 10/8/01)...Graduate of Bolivar High School in Venezuela where he played baseball...Originally signed by Pittsburgh as a non-drafted free agent at the age of 19 on 1/9/87...Wore uniform #13 with the Pirates and Blue Jays as a tribute to former Reds shortstop and Venezuelan native Dave Concepcion, who was Cincinnati's shortstop for 19 years (1970-1988).

#26 pitching coach JOE KERRIGAN

AGE: 56
BORN: 1/30/54 in Philadelphia, PA
RESIDES: North Wales, PA

APPOINTED: 10/20/2008
POSITION PLAYED: RHP

Joe Kerrigan is in his second season as the Pirates Pitching Coach, having been named to the position on October 20, 2008. In total, Joe has spent 19 seasons as a coach in the Major Leagues, 13 as a Pitching Coach.

In his first season with the Pirates, the pitching staff lowered its ERA from 5.08 in 2008 to 4.59 and issued close to 100 fewer walks compared to the year before.

Kerrigan spent the 2008 season as a baseball analyst for Comcast SportsNet and WBCB Radio covering the World Champion Phillies in his home town of Philadelphia.

After serving as a special advisor to New York's Senior Vice President and General Manager Brian Cashman in 2005, Kerrigan served the Yankees as the Bullpen Coach for two seasons (2006-07). Prior to joining the Yankees, he spent two seasons (2003-04) as the Pitching Coach with Philadelphia.

Kerrigan answers questions at Pirate Fest in 2009

Kerrigan also spent parts of five seasons as Pitching Coach with Boston (1997-2001), until he succeeded Jimy Williams as the 42nd manager in Red Sox history on August 16, 2001. During his tenure in Boston, his pitching staffs compiled an 823-687 record while Pedro Martinez captured two Cy Young Awards (1999 and 2000). Boston also led the American League in ERA, shutouts and strikeouts, while allowing the fewest hits, walks and runs in 1999. In his stint as manager of the Red Sox, Joe posted a 17-26 record.

Kerrigan began his coaching career as the Bullpen Coach for manager Bill Virdon with the Montreal Expos in 1983, a position he held for four seasons before working as a Pitching Coach in Montreal's minor league system for five years. During those five years, Kerrigan served as a coach with Double-A Jacksonville (1987), Triple-A Indianapolis (1988-1990) and Double-A Harrisburg (1991).

From 1992 thru 1996, Kerrigan served as Pitching Coach with the Expos, where his staff posted the second-best ERA (3.25) in 1992, led the National League with a 3.56 ERA in 1994 and finished in the top five in ERA four times.

A right-handed pitcher during his playing days, Kerrigan spent parts of four seasons in the majors with Montreal (1976-77) and Baltimore (1978 and 1980). Originally selected by the Expos in the first round (10th pick overall) of the January 1974 draft, Kerrigan made his big league debut with Montreal on 7/9/76. He recorded the first two wins of his Major League career on 9/8/76 at St. Louis, winning both ends of a doubleheader. Kerrigan also led the 1977 Montreal staff with 11 saves and ranked second on the team in appearances (66) behind Will McEnaney (69).

#48 hitting coach DON LONG

AGE: 47
BORN: 3/17/62 in Bremerton, WA
RESIDES: Edmonds, WA

APPOINTED: 11/27/2007
POSITION PLAYED: INF

Don Long was named Hitting Coach of the Pirates on November 27, 2007. During his first season of instructing the Pittsburgh hitters, the team scored a total of 735 runs, the most by the Pirates since 2003 (753). The '08 squad also ranked seventh in the National League in hits (1454) and fifth in doubles (314) while hitting 153 home runs, the highest total for the team since 2003 (163).

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Long worked eight years as the minor league hitting coordinator with the Philadelphia Phillies. He spent the 1999 season as the Phillies roving hitting instructor.

Long spent 11 years as a manager in the Angels minor league sytem before joining Philadelphia. After working as a coach with Quad City in 1987, he made his managerial debut with the Bend Bucks in 1988. Don returned to Quad City and was named Midwest League Manager-of-the-Year after leading his squad to the 1990 league title. A year later he captured Manager-of-the-Year accolades again after guiding his Midland club to a 37-30 second-half record and into the Texas League playoffs.

Long offers assistance at the Pirates Baseball Center in Shadyside

After two more seasons with Midland (1992-93), Long managed in the Pacific Coast League for three years, leading Vancouver to a pair of first-place finishes. He advanced to the league championship in 1994 and was named Manager-of-the-Year in 1995 after guiding the club to an 81-60 regular-season record and an appearance in the post season. In his 11 seasons as a minor league skipper, Long produced a 698-697 record.

A former switch-hitting infielder, Long was originally selected by San Francisco in the third round of the 1983 June draft. He played three years in the Giants farm system (1983-85) where he compiled a .251 batting average, 12 home runs and 76 RBI in 198 games. Before becoming a manager in the minor leagues, Long served as the Head Baseball Coach at Seattle University in 1986.

PIRATES WHO HAVE HIT FOR THE CYCLE

Hitting for the cycle (a single, double, triple and home run in the same game) is a feat that has been accomplished 23 times by 20 different Pittsburgh players. Fred Clarke, Arky Vaughan and Wally Westlake achieved the feat two times each. It has been accomplished just six times by a Bucco since the 1951 season and just once (Jason Kendall at Three Rivers Stadium on May 19, 2000) in the city of Pittsburgh in the last 58 years.

#54 major league coach RAY SEARAGE

AGE: 54 (turns 55 on May 1)
BORN: 5/1/55 in Deer Park, NY
RESIDES: St. Petersburg, FL

APPOINTED: 10/17/09
POSITION PLAYED: LHP

Ray Searage joined the Major League coaching staff on October 17, 2009. The 2010 season marks Searage's 33rd in professional baseball and his eighth with the Pittsburgh organization. He spent this past off season working as the Pitching Coach for Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League.

His Magallanes pitching staff led the league with a 4.10 ERA and went 41-22 with a league-high 21 saves in the regular season. Magallanes lost, three games to two, to Caracas in the Championship Series.

Searage spent the last seven seasons as a Pitching Coach at various levels within the minor league system, most recently with Triple-A Indianapolis in 2008 and 2009. He also served in the same capacity with Double-A Altoona (2006-07), Class-A Hickory (2005) and Rookie-League Williamsport (2003-2004). During his tenure with the Pirates, he also served as a coach during the Arizona Fall League in 2006 and again in 2008.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Ray spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons as the Florida Marlins Minor League Pitching Coordinator. He also served as Pitching Coach with Orlando (Devil Rays' AA) for three years prior to joining the Marlins. Searage began his coaching career in the St. Louis Cardinals minor league system, working as Pitching Coach with Madison (1994), Peoria (1995-1996) and Prince William (1997).

Originally selected by St. Louis in the 22nd round of the 1976 June draft, Searage made his Major League debut with the New York Mets on 6/11/81. Ray picked up his first Major League win at Wrigley Field in Chicago while making his third career appearance on 8/11/81; in the same game he singled off Dick Tidrow in his first big league plate appearance. Later in the 1981 season, he earned his first save after nailing down a 5-3 Mets victory over the Pirates at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh on September 9.

#14 bench coach GARY VARSHO

AGE: 48 (turns 49 on June 20)
BORN: 6/20/61 in Marshfield, WI
RESIDES: Chili, WI

APPOINTED: 11/20/2007
POSITION PLAYED: OF

Gary Varsho returned to the Pittsburgh organization when he was named Bench Coach on November 20, 2007. In his current role, Varsho assists Manager John Russell in all aspects of game preparation during the regular season. He also prepares the daily schedule for the team during spring training, working closely with other coaches, the grounds crew and various front office personnel.

Varsho, who played for the Pirates in 1991-92 and again in 1994, spent the 2007 season as Cleveland's minor league Outfield/Baserunning Coordinator. He spent the previous five years (2002-06) as the Phillies Bench Coach, which was his first Major League coaching assignment. Gary served as Philadelphia's interim manager for the final two games of the 2004 season following Larry Bowa's dismissal (he posted a 1-1 record in the two games).

Varsho played with the Pirates from 1991-1992 and 1994

Prior to joining the big league staff in Philadelphia, Varsho spent five seasons as a minor league manager, compiling an overall record on 383-319 (.546 winning pct.). In his three seasons with Double-A Reading, he tallied 235 victories, good for fourth on the club's all-time win list. Gary led Reading to the Southern Division Championship in 2001 and a share of the Eastern League title.

Varsho made his managerial debut with Wisconsin in 1997 and led his club to a first-place finish in the Central Division during the first half of the season. He spent one more season with Wisconsin before joining Reading, where he was named the Eastern League's Manager-of-the-Year in 2000. Gary was also a coach for the USA Team during the 2000 All-Star Futures Game in Atlanta. At the conclusion of both the 2000 and 2001 campaigns, Baseball America recognized Varsho as the "Best Managing Prospect" in the E.L.

HEBERTO ANDRADE

Bullpen Catcher

Heberto Andrade is in his seventh season as the Pirates Bullpen Catcher. His daily responsibilities include catching pitchers' bullpen sessions prior to games and warming up pitchers during the games. He also observes what pitchers are doing mechanically and has regular communication with the Bullpen Coach and Pitching Coach. Herbie also throws to the hitters during batting practice on a daily basis.

Andrade spent three years (1986-88) as a catcher in the Chicago Cubs farm system and also played professional baseball in Venezuela, Italy and Colombia before retiring as a player in 1996.

In addition to his duties with the Pirates, Heberto has spent six of the last seven years as a coach and catching instructor during the Venezuelan Winter League. He was John Russell's Bench Coach in 2006-07.

He was one of the two catchers for the 2006 All-Star Game Home Run Derby, which was held at PNC Park on July 10.

Heberto and his wife Maria reside in Venezuela and have three daughters; Maria Jesus (13), Maria Jose (12) and Maria Angel (11).

KEVIN ROACH

Video Coordinator

Kevin Roach is in his sixth season as the team's official video coordinator. In his role, Kevin is responsible for videotaping each Pittsburgh batter and pitcher during every game, as well as taping a majority of every opponent's games. The videos are then used by Manager John Russell, along with the coaching staff and players, to analyze strengths and weaknesses in the players performance. In addition, Kevin oversees the video operations for all minor league teams within the organization.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Roach spent five years as the assistant video coordinator for the Pittsburgh Panthers. In addition to assisting with the video efforts for the entire athletic department, he was the chief video contact for the men's basketball program.

Kevin also served as administrative assistant for the Cleveland State University men's basketball team for four years (1996-2000). While there, he coordinated the Cleveland State Benefit Golf Outing and was co-director of the Rollie Massimino Basketball Camp. Roach additionally worked with the Cleveland Browns media relations department and the Cleveland Indians video department. He also served as an administrative assistant for the Wichita State men's basketball team from 1995-1996 and the UNLV men's basketball team from 1992-1994.

A native of Syracuse, NY, Roach earned both his Master's in sport management and Bachelor's degree in communication from Cleveland State University. He also owns an Associate's degree in radio and television from Onondaga Community College. In addition, Kevin coached the Cleveland Basketball Club's AAU 15 & Under squad which advanced to the 1999 AAU National Tournament in Indianapolis.

Kevin and his wife Heather reside in Pittsburgh and have two daughters; Ella (8/17/07) and Lily (10/29/09).

DR. PATRICK DEMEO — Medical Director

Dr. Patrick DeMeo serves as the Medical Director for the Pittsburgh Pirates, a position he has held since the 2002 season. He began his tenure as Sports Medicine consultant and coordinator of services provided by Allegheny General Hospital for the club during the summer of 2000.

In November of 2008, DeMeo and the Pirates athletic training staff received the Dick Martin Award, an honor bestowed upon the Best Medical Staff in baseball by Baseball Prospectus. The award is named after the long-time Twins trainer who helped set the standard of excellence that today's Athletic Trainers and doctors aspire to reach.

DeMeo is currently the Chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at Allegheny General Hospital as well as a member of the Board of Directors. In addition to his services in Pittsburgh, he serves as Assistant Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery for the Drexel University School of Medicine in Philadelphia.

He received his medical degree from Wayne State University in 1986 and served his internship and residencies at the Downstate Medical Center at the State University of New York. Dr. DeMeo, who is certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery, completed his orthopaedic residency at The Ohio State University and his Fellowship training in sports medicine at the Cleveland Clinic. He was also honored by Vectors as Pittsburgh's Physician-of-the-Year in 2002 and is the past President of Dapper Dan Charities in Pittsburgh.

Dr. DeMeo and his wife, Anita, have two children; son PJ (15) and daughter Kaitlyn (13).

DR. EDWARD SNELL — Team Physician

Dr. Edward Snell is in his 11th season as the Pirates Team Physician, having joined the staff in 2000.

In addition to his work with the Bucs, Ed serves as the President for the Major League Baseball Team Physician Association and is a member of the PIAA Sports Medicine advisory board. He has also served as a medical consultant for a number of professional and amateur sports venues, including the Pittsburgh Penguins, the Pittsburgh Marathon, The Great Race, the NCAA tournament and the World Boxing Council. He was recognized as the Physician of the Year in 2009 by the PATS.

Snell is currently a senior attending staff physician with Allegheny Orthopaedic Associates. He is also a director of the Sports Medicine Fellowship Program at Allegheny General Hospital in Pittsburgh and serves as an Assistant Professor of Orthopaedics at Drexel University school of Medicine in Philadelphia.

A native of Harrisburg, PA, Dr. Snell received undergraduate degrees in mathematics and chemistry from Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, PA, and his medical degree from the Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine in 1991. He completed his residency at St. Margaret Memorial Hospital in Pittsburgh and his fellowship training in sports medicine at the Cleveland Clinic Foundation in Ohio, where he also served as a physician for the Cleveland Cavaliers and the Cleveland Browns. Ed is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine and the American Medical Society of Sports Medicine. Snell also serves on the PIAA Sports Advisory Committee and is the co-medical director of the athletic training program at Duquesne University.

Dr. Snell and his wife Christine have two daughters; Emily (13) and Elizabeth (9).

BRAD HENDERSON — Head Athletic Trainer

Brad Henderson was named Head Athletic Trainer of the Pirates on December 2, 2002, after spending 15 years as the Assistant Athletic Trainer with the St. Louis Cardinals. He joined the Cardinals Major League training staff in May of 1988 and had been a trainer in the St. Louis organization since 1985.

In November of 2008, Henderson and his staff received the Dick Martin Award, an honor bestowed upon the Best Medical Staff in baseball by Baseball Prospectus. The award is named after the long-time Twins trainer who helped set the standard of excellence that today's Athletic Trainers and doctors aspire to reach. Henderson's staff not only had an excellent 2008 campaign, but its three-year results and trends from 2006-08 were the best in the game.

Henderson's first professional assignment was serving as athletic trainer with the Johnson City club in the Appalachian League. He was also head athletic trainer with Arkansas (Texas League) before joining St. Louis in 1988.

Brad has been a National Athletic Trainers Association member since 1986 and is licensed by the states of Pennsylvania, Missouri and Florida. He was the National League Assistant Trainer Representative to the PBAT Executive Committee for two years and served as athletic trainer for the 2006 and 2000 National League All-Star teams. In addition, Brad has worked with the athletic training staffs of the St. Louis football Cardinals and the University of Missouri's football and baseball teams.

A 1985 graduate of the University of Missouri, Brad and his wife Julie have a son; Blake (18) and a daughter; Brooke (16).

MIKE SANDOVAL — Assistant Athletic Trainer

Mike Sandoval joined the Pittsburgh Pirates Major League athletic training staff when he was named assistant athletic trainer and Major League rehab coordinator on November 8, 2000.

The 2010 season will mark Sandoval's 24th as an athletic trainer in the Pittsburgh organization. He began his professional career in 1987 while still in school at New Mexico State University, when he served as athletic trainer for the Watertown Pirates in the New York-Penn League. Mike also served the Bucs as an athletic trainer at Princeton, WV (1988), Salem (1989), Harrisburg (1990), Carolina (1991, 1997-1998), Buffalo (1992-94), Calgary (1995), Augusta (1996) and Altoona (1999-2000).

During the inaugural season of the Arizona Fall League in 1992, Sandoval served as athletic trainer for Phoenix. He did the same for Peoria during the 2000 off-season and with Kauai in the Hawaiian Winter League in both 1993 and 1994. Sandoval also spent winters as an athletic trainer in Venezuela (1990) and the Dominican Republic (1991). Mike was also the athletic trainer for the Mexican team during the 2006 World Baseball Classic.

Mike and his wife, Dodie, have one son; Michael, Jr. (23). He is a 1988 graduate of New Mexico State University, where he earned a degree in physical education and sports medicine. A member of the 2002 Major League Athletic Trainers Staff-of-the-Year, Sandoval has been a NATA member since 1985 and was NATA certified in 1988. Mike was licensed by the state of Pennsylvania in 2001.

TOSHI NAGAHARA

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Toshi Nagahara was hired as an Assistant Athletic Trainer on December 2, 2009. He will assist the Major League athletic training staff and will serve as the primary interpreter for Japanese infielder Aki Iwamura.

Nagahara spent the last two seasons in the same capacity with the Cleveland Indians, assisting head athletic trainer Lonnie Soloff and his staff while helping Japanese pitcher Masa Kobayashi with his transition to the Major Leagues.

Prior to joining the Indians, Toshi spent parts of four seasons in the Oakland organization from 2004-07 with Class-A Modesto and Triple-A Sacramento as a Strength & Conditioning Coach/Athletic Trainer.

A 2001 graduate of Southern Arkansas University, where he received a degree in exercise science, Nagahara earned a masters degree in exercise science from Arkansas State. He was also a graduate assistant Athletic Trainer while attending Arkansas State in 2002 and 2003.

Nagahara resides in Takamatsu, Japan, in the off season. He also has a degree in economics from Kagawa University.

FRANK VELASQUEZ

Conditioning Coordinator

Frank Velasquez is in his eighth season as the Pittsburgh Pirates Major League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator. Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Velasquez spent three years as the minor league conditioning & medical coordinator for the Texas Rangers. He also served the Texas organization as a minor league athletic trainer at Charlotte (1997-1999) and Class-A Charleston, SC (1996).

Frank is a 1989 Graduate of Three Rivers High School (Three Rivers, MI) and a 1993 graduate of the University of Michigan (Ann Arbor, MI), where he served as a student athletic trainer from 1989 to 1993 while earning a Bachelor's degree in Kinesiology. At Michigan he was a part of several Big 10 Championships and on the staffs of the 1991 Gator Bowl and 1993 Rose Bowl winning teams. He also has over five years of experience working in the arena of outpatient physical therapy. Frank is a certified athletic trainer by the NATA and a certified strength and conditioning specialist by the NSCA.

Velasquez was born in Bay City, MI. He and his wife, Carrie, reside in Pittsburgh and have one son; Kaden (5).

ERWIN VALENCIA

Physical Therapist and Rehab Coordinator

Erwin Valencia is in his sixth season with the Pittsburgh organization, his fifth as a member of the Major League training staff. He spent the 2005 season as the Athletic Trainer for the Gulf Coast League Pirates while assisting the minor league athletic training Coordinator with rehabilitation programs in Bradenton.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Erwin worked at the US Athletic Training Center in New York City from 2003-2005 as a Staff Physical Therapist, at Yale University as an Assistant Athletic Trainer in 2002-2003, at the Tilton School in New Hampshire as an Assistant Athletic Trainer in 2001-2002, and as a Student Athletic Trainer for Plymouth State University in 2000-2001.

Valencia earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Physical Therapy from the University of the Philippines, Manila, in 1999 and has since been a Registered Physical Therapist in the Philippines and in the United States. He received a Masters of Education in Athletic Training and Sports Medicine from Plymouth State University in New Hampshire in 2002 and has since been a Certified Athletic Trainer and Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist. Erwin continued his academic career with a Post-Graduate Fellowship at Yale University the following year, and is currently completing his clinical Doctorate degree in Manual Therapy at the University of St. Augustine.

Erwin is a member of the American Academy of Orthopedic Manual Physical Therapists, the American Physical Therapy Association, the National Athletic Trainers' Association, the National Strength and Conditioning Association, National Academy of Sports Medicine and the Philippine Physical Therapy Association. He lectures and teaches workshops on Manual Therapy and Sports Medicine nationally and internationally, and also serves as a rehabilitation consultant to the Czech Republic National Baseball Team, the Ginebra Gin Kings Professional Basketball Team (Philippines) and The Red Corner Boxing Clubs (Philippines).
Valencia resides in South Tampa, Florida.

KIYOSHI MOMOSE

Kiyoshi Momose is in his 10th season as a member of the Pirates organization. He joined the Major League staff in January of 2002 after working as the club's minor league assistant Conditioning Coach in 2001. Kiyoshi also served as the Pirates Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coordinator (2005-2006) after working the previous three years (2002-2004) as the team's Video Coordinator.

Momose assists Frank Velasquez with the day-to-day conditioning of the Major League players, which includes nutrition, weight training programs and daily evaluations of the athletes. He will work in Pittsburgh while the team is at home and will also travel to the Dominican Republic and Venezuela to oversee the players' conditioning in those respective academies.

Momose was born in Nagano, Japan and is a 1991 graduate of Misuzugaoka High School in Nagano. He earned a Bachelor's degree in physical education from Nippon College of Physical Education and his Master's degree in exercise physiology from the University of Central Florida. In addition, he is fluent in three languages (English, Japanese and Spanish). Kiyoshi and his wife, Lucianna, reside in Pittsburgh with their son Tristan (9).

SCOTT BONNETT

Clubhouse Manager

Scott "Bones" Bonnett joined the Pittsburgh organization on February 1, 2000. He spent nine years as the Assistant Equipment Manager before being named to his current position in November of 2008.

Bonnett is responsible for ordering all equipment for the Major League club in addition to maintaining a comfortable atmosphere in the Pirates clubhouse at PNC Park. He also oversees the transfer and distribution of personal luggage and all baseball equipment during team travel. Scott also travels to Bradenton, FL, to assist the club during mini-camp and the annual Fantasy Camp in January.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Scott worked as an attendant in the visiting baseball clubhouse at Cinergy Field, the previous home of the Cincinnati Reds, for nine years (1991-1999). He also served the Cincinnati organization as a batboy for three seasons (1988-1990). Scott has also spent time with the Pirates the past eight years during the club's spring training stay in Bradenton, Florida.

The 39-year-old Bonnett is a native of Cincinnati, OH, and is a graduate of Lakota High School. He also attended the University of Cincinnati. Scott resides in Pittsburgh and has one son; Sawyer James (4).

KEVIN CONRAD

Visiting Clubhouse Manager

Kevin Conrad was named the visiting clubhouse manager in January of 1998. In that role, he is responsible for maintaining a comfortable atmosphere in the visiting baseball clubhouse at PNC Park in addition to assisting Equipment Manager Scott Bonnett in day-to-day clubhouse operations. In 2006, Kevin served as the American League clubhouse manager for the Major League Baseball All-Star Game at PNC Park.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Conrad served as an assistant in the Philadelphia Phillies visiting clubhouse for six seasons. He also serves as the visiting clubhouse manager at McKechnie Field during spring training and has assisted Wilson during the Pirates stay in Bradenton, Florida, since 1995.

The 43-year-old native of Rahway, NJ, is a 1985 graduate of Roselle (NJ) Catholic High School.

KIERE BULLS

Assistant Equipment Manager

Kiere Bulls is in his second season as the Assistant Equipment Manager. In his role, he is responsible for helping to maintain a comfortable atmosphere in the Pirates clubhouse in addition to assisting Home Clubhouse Manager Scott Bonnett in day-to-day operations.

Bulls worked part-time in the Pirates clubhouse from August 1, 1998 thru the 2008 season while also working as a correctional officer at the Allegheny County Jail from March 29, 2004 thru February 2009. He also worked with United Parcel Service from November 2002 thru March 2004.

In addition to handling all the duties while taking an occasional road trip with the team during the regular season, Kiere has also assisted Bonnett the last two years during the club's stay in Bradenton, Florida, during spring training.

The 27-year-old Bulls is a 2000 graduate of Langley High School in Pittsburgh, and resides in Bellevue. He has two children; daughter London (6) and son Keyshawn (3).

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at bats.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine and then divide that number by the number of innings pitched.

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING AVERAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit-by-pitch, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games, which may include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitch, etc.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: The fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher participates as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: if another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

NOTE: These figures DO NOT determine Rawlings Gold Glove winners at the end of the season. Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE: A player with no more than 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during the previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-man player limit (excluding time in military service).

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DETERMINING GAMES AHEAD/BEHIND: Subtract the team's wins from the first place club's wins and subtract the first place club's losses from the team's losses. Add the results and divide by two.

PITTSBURGH PIRATES TEAM HISTORY

Now in their 124th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenies were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

1885: Alleghenies

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenies reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenies defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenies' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League – the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

Louis Bierbauer

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But in 1891 Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

Barney Dreyfuss

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirate history, the Hall-of-Fame owner brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell – plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

Honus Wagner

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers – Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions – Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

1903 Pirates

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30th that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park – which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium – their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's – with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey – Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" – batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd – who was tagged "Little Poison" – hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against New York's famed "Murderer's Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) – which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (that mark was matched by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Ralph Kiner

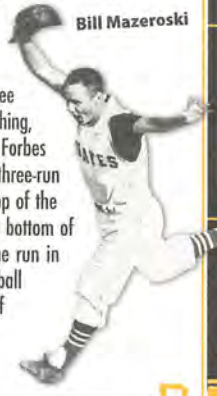
Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including 2001 Hall-of-Fame inductee Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and Hall-of-Fame right fielder Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

Danny Murtaugh

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth – thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth – but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the game. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in Game Six of the 1993 fall classic.

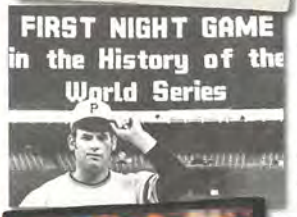
Bill Mazeroski



Roberto Clemente

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).



The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente, who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award. In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors – as he did during the regular season – with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home-run hitter of the 1970's (296). While the Pirates brought two world championships back to Pittsburgh during the 1970s, the Pittsburgh Steelers also came to prominence. The Steelers won four Super Bowls during the 70s, which, coupled with the Pirates success, helped garner Pittsburgh the "City of Champions" label.

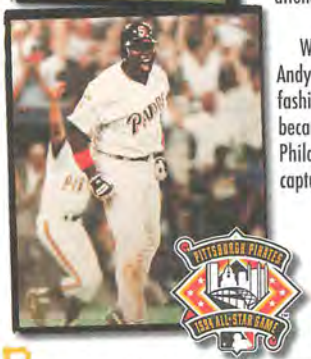
On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to sburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in sburgh.

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, C Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M.Walken.

Barry Bonds

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.



With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Bonds captured MVP honors in 1990 and 1992, while Drabek won the Cy Young award in '90. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, placing him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

Doug Drabek

Pittsburgh was on the brink of a World Series berth in both the 1991 and 1992 season, but the Pirates lost the seventh and deciding game each year to the Atlanta Braves. In 1992, Pittsburgh came within three outs of the Fall Classic. But in the bottom of the ninth inning at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, the Braves triumphed with three runs and won the game 3-2 and the series, four-games-to-three.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991. A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994. In one of the most thrilling All-Star Games ever to be played, the National League prevailed over the American League in extra frames. Fred McGriff helped send the game into extra innings when he delivered a two-run, pinch-hit home run off Lee Smith in the bottom of the ninth inning that tied the score. After the American League failed to score in the top of the 10th inning, the National League broke it's six-game losing streak when Tony Gwynn scored on a double by Moises Alou.

Ricardo Rincon and Francisco Cordova

Kevin McClatchy

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Asssociates.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the Pirates remained in the division race until the final weekend of the season and the club was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. Major League Baseball also underwent a change in 1997 with the birth of Interleage play. That season, the Pirates welcomed the Kansas City Royals to Three Rivers Stadium on June 13 for the club's first interleague matchup, which Pittsburgh won by a score of 4-1. While the Bucs contended for the division during the entire season, one of the most memorable moments of the season came on July 12, 1997. That night, pitchers Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon thrilled Pirates fans with the only combined, extra-inning no-hitter in major league history. The game ended in the bottom of the tenth inning when Mark Smith delivered a three-run home run for the 3-0 win.

The 2000 season brought an end to a full century of great moments, a 100-year period which began with three straight National League pennants and ended with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come. With a new home on the horizon, the Bucs said goodbye to Three Rivers Stadium with their final game ever played there on October 1, 2000. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit, two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

John Wehner

The Pirates closed out their 30-year tenure at Three Rivers Stadium with a 10-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs in the final game of what was the club's home since 1970. Pittsburgh native John Wehner smacked the final home run in the history of the ballpark off Chicago's Jon Lieber. Ironically, Wehner also grounded out to third base for the final out ever at Three Rivers. With the loss, Pittsburgh closed out Three Rivers Stadium with a record of 1,324 wins and 1,082 losses.

In the early morning of February 11, 2001, Pittsburgh bid farewell to Three Rivers when the home of the Pirates and Steelers was imploded.

First pitch at PNC Park

PNC Park officially opened its gates on April 9, 2001. Regarded by many as the best ballpark ever built, PNC Park is an intimate two-level structure which offers all fans dramatic views of the downtown skyline as well as the natural grass playing surface. After touring all 30 major league ballparks during the summer of 2003, ESPN.com ranked PNC Park as the best in baseball.

The anticipation and joy of a new ballpark turned to sorrow, when on the morning of the first regular season game at PNC Park, a beloved member of the Pirates family was lost when Willie Stargell passed away on April 9, 2001.

Jason Kendall

Despite suffering 100 losses for just the seventh time in club history in 2001, fans came out in record numbers as the Bucs played in front of 19 sellouts and a total of 2,436,139 customers during the inaugural season at PNC Park.

On June 25, 2002, the Pirates registered the 9,000th win in the history of the franchise with a 4-1 victory over the Montreal Expos, thus becoming just the fourth club to produce 9,000 wins.

The Pirates have had a long list of sluggers in their history and Brian Giles added his name to that list during his five seasons in a Bucco uniform. He hit 30 or more home runs in each of his first four seasons with the club, just one of three Pirates to hit 30 or more long balls in four consecutive years (also Hall-of-Famers Ralph Kiner and Willie Stargell). His 165 home runs with Pitsburgh rank sixth in club history.

Catcher Jason Kendall spent each of his first nine big league seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform after being selected in the first round of the 1992 June draft. In that time, he made 1,205 appearances behind the plate. That figure ranks first all-time in the annals of the club, 50 games ahead of George Gibson, who caught for the Bucs from 1906 thru 1915. Kendall surpassed Gibson's 90-year-old record in Los Angeles on August 3, 2004.

For the first time in team history a Pittsburgh player captured Rookie-of-the-Year honors as outfielder Jason Bay took home the honors in 2004. A two-time National League All-Star, Bay was a fan favorite at the 2006 All-Star Game in Pittsburgh.

The national spotlight shined once again on the city of Pittsburgh during the 2006 season as the Major League Baseball All-Star Game was played at PNC Park, marking the fifth time the event has been held in the Steel City. The American League won a dramatic 3-2 decision in the Midsummer Classic as the Pirates became the first team in baseball history to host the All-Star Game in three different venues.

Also in 2006, Freddy Sanchez added his name to the club's record list of 25 batting champions as his .344 average led the National League. Sanchez banged out 200 hits in 2006 and led the N.L. with 53 doubles while being named to his first of two All-Star teams.

Freddy Sanchez

On January 18, 2007, Bob Nutting officially assumed control of the ballclub, thus becoming only the sixth principal owner in the Pirates storied history. Following a deep look into the team's operations, Nutting has built a fundamentally different organization by introducing Frank Coonelly as the team's new president on September 13, 2007 and, in-turn, Neal Huntington as the team's new General Manager on September 25, 2007. From there the new leadership team has made significant changes to each of the three major areas – Major League manager/coaching staff, Scouting Director and Farm Director, with the goal of building an organization that can consistently compete.

Frank Coonelly with Bob Nutting and Chuck Tanner on Opening Day 2008

In 2009, fans witnessed the debut of 2005 first-round draft pick Andrew McCutchen and the emergence of many other young players throughout the system. As the organization enters the second decade of the millennium, the future once again looks bright for the Pirates and their fans.

Andrew McCutchen

1900-1910: The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.

1910-1920: The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel (1912). The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button (1913-14). Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.

1921-1932: Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey.

1921

1933-1937: The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.

1938: The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.

1939-1946: A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.

1940: The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game jersey.

1948: The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P".

1953: The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates".

1957: The Pirates became the second team to begin wearing sleeveless jerseys.

1962: Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.

1948

1970: The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new double-knit fabric uniforms, which they debuted at the first game at the new Three Rivers Stadium in July. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.

1957

1977

1990

2001-2008

2009: Home, Road, Alternate (1), Alternate (2)

1976: The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.

1977-1979: Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black iand pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.

1985: The Pirates returned to the basic white and gray uniform.

1987: The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.

1990: A script "Pittsburgh" is added to the gray road uniform for the first time since 1952.

1991: The Pirates return to button-down jerseys and belted pants.

1995: Going back to a more traditional look, the Pirates removed the names from the back of the jerseys.

1996: That change lasted only one year, as the Pirates return the names to the back of the jerseys.

1997: The organization introduces a complete new look by wearing an alternate home jersey as well as bringing the color "red" back into the uniform for the first time since 1946.

2001: With the opening of PNC Park, the club enters a "New Era of Baseball." The team re-introduces the sleeveless jersey as part of both the home and road uniform. The Pirates also become the first team ever to wear a cap with a red underbill (cap worn with the alternate home jersey only).

2005: The Pirates re-introduce pinstripes to the uniform. The alternate uniforms are worn on Sunday home games.

2007: The club introduces a red, sleeveless jersey to be worn on selected home dates.

2009: The Pirates re-introduce sleeves to their home and road jerseys and added a black alternate jersey. The sleeveless pinstriped jersey remains.

BOLD FACE CAPS - Living

In the 123 seasons in the National League, 1688 players have worn the uniform of the Pittsburgh Pirates. As of February 10, 2010, 738 are living.

DID YOU KNOW... The oldest living Pirate is Nick Strincevich, who turned 95 on March 1. Strincevich made his debut with the Boston Bees on April 23, 1940 and spent parts of five seasons with the Pirates (1941-1948, excluding 1943). The pitcher went on to play for the Philadelphia Phillies before retiring in June 1948. In a 10-season career, Strincevich posted a 46-49 record with a 4.05 ERA in 889.2 innings pitched.

BILLY MEYER — #1 retired 1954 — manager

Born January 14, 1892 in Knoxville, TN, died March 31, 1957 in Knoxville. Threw and batted righthanded. A catcher with the White Sox and Athletics (1913, 1916-17), Meyer won eight pennants as a manager of minor league clubs from 1926 through 1947 before becoming Pirates manager in 1948. Known for his rapport with players, fans and the press, Meyer managed in Pittsburgh for five seasons, compiling a record of 317-452. He was The Sporting News Manager-of-the-Year in 1948 when the Bucs compiled a record of 83-71. Following his five-year tenure as Pirates manager, Meyer was a Pittsburgh scout for three years.

RALPH KINER — #4 retired 1987 — outfielder

Born October 27, 1922 in Santa Rita, NM. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1975), Kiner ranks second on club's all-time home run list (301). Won or shared N.L. home run title in each of his seven full seasons with Pittsburgh (1946-1952), a streak unmatched in either league. Hit a club-record 54 homers in 1949 and had a club-record .567 slugging pct. in Pirates career. Was the key player in 10-man deal with the Cubs on June 4, 1953. Played with Cubs (1953-54) and Cleveland (1955) before back ailment ended his career prematurely. Hit 369 home runs in 10-year career, averaging 7.1 per 100 at-bats, which ranks among the best in major league history.

WILLIE STARGELL — #8 retired 1982 — first base

Born March 6, 1941 in Earlsboro, OK, died April 9, 2001 in Wilmington, NC. Threw and batted lefthanded. "Pops" compiled a remarkable career in a 21-year span from 1962 through 1982 with the Pirates. In 2,360 games he batted .282 with 475 home runs, seven home runs in post-season play, and 1,540 RBI. The Bucs' all-time home run, RBI and extra base hits king, Willie also ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles and total bases. Willie was a seven-time All-Star pick. In 1979 he was the N.L.'s co-MVP and the MVP in the LCS and World Series. Stargell became the 17th player elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility (inducted in 1988).

BILL MAZEROSKI — #9 retired 1987 — second base

Born September 5, 1936 in Wheeling, WV. Threw and batted righthanded. His well-chronicled home run against the Yankees gave Pittsburgh the 1960 World Championship. During his 17-year career with Pittsburgh (1956-1972), the Hall-of-Famer won eight Gold Glove awards and earned a reputation as one of the finest fielding second basemen in the history of the game. Among the major league records for second basemen "Maz" holds are: most seasons leading league in assists (nine), most seasons leading league in double plays (eight), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,706). A seven-time N.L. All-Star, he compiled a .260 lifetime average with 138 home runs and 853 runs batted in. Mazeroski was inducted into Hall of Fame in 2001.

PAUL WANER — #11 retired 2007 — outfielder

Born April 16, 1903 in Harrah, OK, died August 29, 1965 in Sarasota, FL. Threw and batted lefthanded. One of the most dominating players in baseball during his 15 years with the Pirates (1926-1939), Waner led all major league players in hits (1,959) during the decade of the '30's. He batted .336 in his rookie campaign of 1926 and became the first player in team history to capture the N.L. Most Valuable Player award a year later. A four-time All-Star and three-time batting champion, "Big Poison" ended his career with 3,152 hits. His .340 average with Pittsburgh ranks first in club history and he ranks among the top 10 in 11 other offensive categories. Waner was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1952.

PIE TRAYNOR #20 retired 1972 third base

Born November 11, 1899 in Framingham, MA, died March 16, 1972 in Pittsburgh. Threw and batted righthanded. Harold (Pie) Traynor was one of the finest third basemen in major league history, earning that reputation in a 17-year playing career spent entirely with the Pirates (1920-1935, 1937). Regarded as an outstanding defensive player, Traynor was also adept with the bat, compiling a lifetime .320 average. While he hit just 58 home runs, he managed to drive in 1,273 runs. Pie ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, extra-base hits, batting average and stolen bases. The Hall of Famer (inducted in 1948) also managed the Pirates from 1934 through 1939.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE #21 retired 1973 right field

Born August 18, 1934 in Carolina, P.R., died December 31, 1972 in San Juan, P.R. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1973), Roberto Clemente was selected by the Pirates in the player draft when the Brooklyn Dodgers left him unprotected after the 1954 season, his first as a professional. For the next 18 years Clemente starred in the Pirates outfield. He won four N.L. batting crowns and batted .317 in his career, with 240 home runs and 1,305 RBI. He also won 12 Gold Glove Awards. He hit safely in all seven games in both the 1960 and 1971 World Series, winning the Series MVP Award in 1971 when he batted .414 with two homers against Baltimore. Clemente was a 12-time All-Star and the N.L. MVP in 1966. He ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in 12 offensive categories. He died with four others when a plane carrying supplies to earthquake-stricken Nicaragua crashed.

HONUS WAGNER #33 retired 1952 shortstop

Born February 24, 1874 in Carnegie, PA, died December 6, 1955 in Carnegie. Threw and batted righthanded. One of five players originally elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1936, Honus Wagner is widely regarded as the best shortstop to ever play the game. "The Flying Dutchman" won eight N.L. batting crowns - second only to Ty Cobb's 12 titles - during a 17-year stretch in which he batted over .300 in each season. Wagner came to Pittsburgh in 1900 after three seasons with Louisville, a franchise that had disbanded. He played with the Bucs until 1917 and ended his career with a .329 average and 101 homers. Wagner was a coach with the Pirates between 1933 and 1951. He ranks among the Pirates' top 10 in 11 offensive categories.

DANNY MURTAUGH #40 retired 1977 manager

Born, October 8, 1917 in Chester, PA, died December 2, 1976 in Chester. Threw and batted righthanded. A second baseman with the Phillies, Braves and Pirates (1941-43, 46-51), Danny Murtaugh was one of the most successful managers in Pirates history. He managed the Bucs in four different stints during 15 seasons between 1957 and 1976. During that time he became one of only 36 managers to win 1,000 games, compiling a record of 1,115-950, his win total ranking second on the Pirates all-time list to Fred Clarke's 1,422. He led the Pirates to five Eastern Division crowns and two World Series Championships (1960 and 1971). He was named The Sporting News Manager-of-the-Year in 1960 and 1970.

JACKIE ROBINSON #42 retired 1997 outfielder

Born January 31, 1919 in Cairo, GA, died October 24, 1972 in Stamford, CT. Threw and batted righthanded. Known forever as the first black player in the major leagues, Jack Roosevelt Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956, helping them to six pennants in a 10-year span and to their only World Championship in 1955. He was named the N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year in 1947 and the league's MVP in 1949. A six-time All-Star, Robinson also became the first man to integrate the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. In 1997, as a tribute to the legacy he created, Major League Baseball retired his number 42 league-wide on the 50th Anniversary of his breaking the game's color barrier. The Pirates officially retired his number in a pre-game ceremony on July 12, 1997.

Director of Scouting

Greg Smith is in his third season as Pittsburgh's Director of Scouting, having been named to the position on November 7, 2007. In 2008 Smith spearheaded the club's First-Year Player Draft efforts and selected Vanderbilt third baseman Pedro Alvarez - who was rated by Baseball America as the "No. 1 prospect" in the draft - with the second pick overall. The Pirates signed 32 of their 50 picks from the 2008 draft and selected 33 players from the college ranks. Smith and his scouting staff followed up with another strong draft in 2009, signing each of the first 14 selections and 23 overall. College catcher Tony Sanchez, the club's first-round pick and fourth in the country, went on to hit .309 while playing at three different levels in his first professional season.

In addition to his duties as the Director of Scouting, Greg provides recommendations to General Manager Neal Huntington regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making for the Baseball Operations department.

Smith is an 18-year scouting veteran, having spent 11 seasons with the Detroit organization, working the last three years (2005-07) as the club's special assignment scout.

Prior to 2005, Greg spent eight seasons (1997-2004) as Detroit's Director of Scouting where he oversaw the First-Year Player Draft and international scouting. He also simultaneously served as the Club's Director of Player Development from 2000-2002. Before joining the Tigers organization, Smith spent seven years (1990-96) as an area scout with the San Diego Padres, covering areas from Florida to Maryland.

Under Smith's guidance, the Tigers selected 2006 American League Rookie of the Year Justin Verlander with the second overall pick in the 2004 draft. Smith and his staff were rated by Baseball America as having the strongest draft of all 30 major league clubs in 2002, a year in which the club selected outfielder Curtis Granderson in the third round and right-handed pitcher Joel Zumaya in the 11th round. Additionally, Greg was directly responsible for the signing of Jair Jurrjens as a non-drafted free agent out of Curacao. During Smith's tenure as Director of Scouting, the Tigers signed and developed over 40 players who reached the Major League level.

Smith spent seven years (1990-1996) as an area scout with the San Diego Padres before joining the Detroit organization. An outfielder/first baseman during his playing days, he signed with the Padres as a free agent on 6/7/88 and played three seasons in the minor leagues with Spokane (1988), Charleston, SC (1989) and Riverside (1990), a club managed by Bruce Bochy.

Greg was born on 2/2/66 in Chattanooga, TN. He received his bachelor's degree in Sociology in 1998 from Vanderbilt University, where he also played baseball and led the SEC in hitting in 1987. Smith resides in Pittsburgh with his wife Martha.

JOE DELLI CARRI

Assistant Scouting Director

Joe Delli Carri was named Pittsburgh's Assistant Director of Scouting in November of 2006. He joined the Pirates scouting staff on November 7, 2005, spending the 2006 season as the East Coast Supervisor.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Delli Carri spent 10 seasons in the New York Mets scouting department, working as a South Regional Supervisor (2001-2005) and an Area Supervisor (1996-2000).

Originally selected by the Mets in the 38th round of the 1989 June draft, Joe made his professional debut with St. Lucie that summer. He spent five seasons in the New York minor league system before being traded to Detroit on 2/17/94. An infielder during his playing days, Delli Carri retired following the players strike in 1995. He returned to the New York organization and served the Mets as their Double-A Hitting Coach at Binghamton during the '95 campaign before joining the scouting staff in 1996.

Joe was born on 1/16/67 in Bronx, NY, and graduated from Bergen Catholic High School in Oradell, NJ. He received his bachelor's degree in Sociology of Law from the University of Pennsylvania. Delli Carri and his wife Cindy have three daughters; Allison (9), Julia (7) and Paige (5).

RENE GAYO

Director of Latin American Scouting

Rene Gayo is in his seventh season as a member of the Pirates Scouting department. In his role, he coordinates and supervises the club's International Scouts in attempts to sign players on the global level - with a heavy emphasis in Latin America.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Gayo spent five years (1999-2003) as the Director of International Scouting/Latin American Crosschecker with the Cleveland Indians. His tenure with the Tribe began in October of 1993 as an area scout, a position he held for eight seasons (1994-2000) mainly in South Texas and Louisiana. When his role on the international level began to expand during his tenure with the Indians, Rene was responsible for signing Fausto Carmona, Rafael Perez, Willy Taveras and Jhonny Peralta among others.

Gayo played one season of professional baseball in the Cincinnati Reds organization as a catcher before turning his attention to scouting and player development. He served the Pirates as a part time scout for four years (1989-1992) and the Texas Rangers in 1993 before joining the Indians.

Rene is of Cuban descent and was born on 9/21/62 in Miami, FL. He was raised in Chicago and currently resides in Alvin, TX, with his wife Leticia and son Manny (16). Gayo attended Gordon Technical High School in Chicago, IL, where he lettered in baseball, hockey and speech & debate before going on to earn an economics degree from St. Mary's University in San Antonio, TX. Rene also played baseball for two years at St. Mary's.

DOUG STRANGE

Director of Player Personnel

Doug Strange is in his ninth season as a member of the Pirates Baseball Operations department; his first as the Director of Player Personnel. He initially joined the staff as a Professional Scout prior to the 2002 campaign and most recently served as a Special Assistant to the General Manager before assuming his new role prior to this seaon.

Strange was the club's Assistant General Manager for three years (2005-07) after serving as a special assistant to the G.M. for two seasons.

Originally selected by Detroit in the seventh round of the 1985 June draft, Strange made his big league debut with the Tigers on 7/13/89 and singled off Seattle's Scott Bankhead for his first hit on 7/15/89. Doug connected off Kansas City's Bret Saberhagen for his first major league home run on 9/4/89. Following his one season with the Tigers, he also played with the Cubs (1991-92), Rangers (1993-94), Mariners (1995-96), Expos (1997) and Pirates (1998).

In 707 career major league games, Strange hit .233 with 31 home runs and 211 RBI. The switch-hitting infielder made a total of 339 appearances at third base, 229 at second base, 18 in left field, 10 at shortstop, seven at first base and two in right field during his nine seasons in the big leagues.

Following his playing days, Strange worked as an area scout with the Florida Marlins from July of 2000 thru the 2001 season. He also served as the club's East Coast crosschecker prior to joining the Pirates Baseball Operations department.

PERSONAL: Doug was born on 4/13/64 in Greenville, SC. He and his wife Holli reside in Gibsonia, PA, with their five children; 13-year-old quadruplets (boys Joseph, Jackson and Jake and girl Logan), who were born at the Duke Medical Center in Durham, NC, on 2/12/97 and daughter Lauren (8).

KYLE STARK

Director of Player Development

Kyle Stark is in his third season as Pittsburgh's Director of Player Development. He was named to his current post on November 7, 2007.

Stark is responsible for all aspects of the Player Development system, including the club's six affiliates in the United States as well as academies in the Dominican Republic and Venezuela. The Pirates player development system is focused on helping all players reach their potential - personally, mentally, physically, and fundamentally - and develop as professionals. This is accomplished through a relentless, systematic, and cohesive approach involving structured, consistent, progression-oriented instruction throughout the organization and detailed, written development plans for all players.

In addition, he provides recommendations to General Manager Neal Huntington regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making for the Baseball Operations department.

Prior to joining Huntington's staff, Stark spent four years in Cleveland's Baseball Operations department, assisting in all areas of Scouting, Player Development and Major League Operations. In 2006 and 2007, Stark performed the baseball related duties of the Assistant Farm Director, oversaw the club's efforts in Pacific Rim Scouting, and coordinated the club's Advanced Scouting which included providing scouting reports on upcoming opponents.

Kyle was born on 7/9/78 in Bradford, PA. A 1999 graduate from Ball State University, Stark received a law degree from the University of Toledo in 2002 and a master's degree in Business Administration from St. Bonaventure in 2004. In his two years at St. Bonaventure, he also served as Pitching Coach for the baseball team. He resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Heather, and two sons; Chance (10) and Cooper (3).

JEFF BANISTER

Field Coordinator

Jeff Banister is in his eighth season as the Pirates Minor League Field Coordinator after spending the previous four years (1999-2002) as the Field Coordinator at the Major League level. The 2010 season marks Banister's 25th with the Pittsburgh organization.

Originally selected by the Pirates in the 25th round of the 1986 June free agent draft, Jeff began his professional playing career with Watertown. He compiled a .247 batting average, 37 home runs and 204 RBI in 515 minor league games. Banister made his major league debut and only big league appearance with the Pirates on 7/23/91. He owns a career Major League batting average of 1.000, having singled off Atlanta's Dan Petry at Three Rivers Stadium in his only big league at bat. Jeff went on to miss the entire 1992 season due to right elbow surgery. He has battled bone cancer and osteomyelitis, in addition to having seven operations on his left ankle and leg in 1980.

Banister served as a player/coach with Carolina (AA) in 1993 before beginning his managerial career with Welland in the New York-Penn League in 1994. He moved on to manage Augusta (A) in 1995 and Lynchburg (A) for 1996 and the first half of the 1997 campaign. His Augusta club captured the 1995 South Atlantic League championship. Jeff replaced Marc Hill at Carolina for the remainder of the 1997 season and spent the entire 1998 campaign at the Mudcats helm. In his five seasons as a minor league manager, Banny has compiled a 299-330 (.475) record. He also managed in the Hawaiian Winter League in 1995-96, with his Honolulu club winning the championship. In 2004, Jeff managed Lynchburg for two weeks during a managerial change.

This past off season, Banister managed the Scottsdale Scorpions to a 15-16 record and a second place finish during the Arizona Fall League.

Jeff was born on 1/15/65 in Weatherford, OK. He is a graduate of LaMarque (TX) High School and attended the University of Houston. Banister resides in League City, TX, with his wife Karen and two children; daughter Alexandra (15) and son Jacob (8).

The Pirates reaffirmed their deep roots in Latin America in 2009 with the opening of the club's brand new 46-acre training facility in El Toro after breaking ground just one year earlier. The facility, which was opened with much fanfare in early May, includes a quadrangle of four fields, including two full fields.

The Dominican Summer League Pirates suffered a losing season for just the third time since 2001 after going 28-39 and finishing in eighth place in the Boca Chica North Division.

Infielder Eric Avila led the D.S.L. squad after hitting .315 and also pacing the league in hits, doubles and extra base hits (30). Diego Goris finished second on the team with 31 RBI in 58 games while outfielder Gavi Nivar ranked third with 28 RBI in his first professional season.

Righthander Fraylin Campos struck out a team-high 92 batters in his 71.1 innings of work while making a total of 15 appearances (13 starts) during his second season on the team. Martires Cadet led the staff in victories after going 6-1 with a 3.13 ERA in 18 relief appearances. Righthander Emmanuel De Leon also put together a solid season as he held opposing hitters to a .199 batting average in his 14 starts.

The Venezuelan Summer League Pirates continued to boast one of the league's top teams after advancing to the postseason for the fourth consecutive year. One year after claiming the Venezuelan Summer League crown, the V.S.L. Buccos finished with a league-leading 48-22 record before losing the best-of-three championship series, two-games-to-one, to the V.S.L. Rays squad.

Pittsburgh's entry in the Venezuelan Summer League finished first in the league with a .286 batting average and 461 runs scored (the V.S.L. Rays were the next closest team with 431 runs scored).

Individually, first baseman Michaelangel Trinidad finished second in the league in home runs, RBI and slugging percentage, third in on-base percentage and extra base hits (27) and 10th in batting average. Infielder Jorge Bishop, who was playing in his first professional season, also produced a solid year in his first professional season. The 18-year-old Bishop finished first in the league in hits and runs scored, tied for fourth in home runs and third in stolen bases. Infielder David Pino led the league in triples, ranked third in RBI, second in extra base hits (28) and second in runs scored. Catcher Ramon Cabrera began the year with Venezuela and hit .312 in 20 games before being joining the Gulf Coast League Pirates during the season.

The pitching staff also helped pave the way to another winning season after finishing second in the circuit with a 3.54 staff ERA. Two of the league's top 10 finishers in ERA were members of the V.S.L. pitching staff as Roberto Espinoza finished seventh and Oscar Verdugo ranked eighth. Closer Raul Ruiz proved to be one of the most reliable hurlers in the back end of the bullpen after finishing a perfect 7-0 while posting a 0.53 ERA in 20 appearances. Ruiz also finished the year tied for second in the league in wins, fifth in saves and tied for fourth in games.

PNC PARK STATUE INFORMATION

HONUS WAGNER

The Honus Wagner statue has had three different "homes" since being dedicated on April 30, 1955. Originally, the Wagner statue was located in Schenley Park, close to the Pirates early home, Forbes Field. It was then moved to Three Rivers Stadium and erected outside Gate C on July 21, 1972.

The statue is now located at the home plate entrance to PNC Park. Honus Wagner's statue was sponsored by the Pittsburgh Professional Baseball Association as a lasting tribute to his character and abilities. Contributions to the statue fund were in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $1.00 and were received from thousands of individuals, organizations and foundations. Names of all contributors were then inscribed on one continuous roll and put in a stainless steel, hermetically-sealed tube before being placed inside the statue.

"No one player has ever brought more honor to the game of baseball than has Honus Wagner," said former Pirates President Bill Benswanger, who served as master of ceremonies at the original statue dedication in 1955.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

The Roberto Clemente statue was dedicated on July 8, 1994, to kick off All-Star Week in Pittsburgh. It was originally erected outside Gate A at Three Rivers Stadium and is now located outside the Center Field Gate to PNC Park, a few steps away from the Roberto Clemente Bridge.

The base of the statue is black granite and stainless steel with a diamond set in the center. Glass blocks represent first, second and third base. Beneath the glass is soil from Puerto Rico -- where Roberto first played the game – Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium. The soil is marked as "hallowed ground," a place of transcendence where the past, present and future of baseball meet and to which each individual can bring his or her own memories.

Encircling the diamond and set in the stainless steel is a timeline of Clemente's life. Fifteen inscriptions run counter-clockwise around the diamond, beginning at homeplate and ending somewhere between third base and home. There is space for a 16th inscription, but it remains empty, a reflection of the incomplete circle of Roberto Clemente's life. Susan Wagner sculpted the 12-foot bronze statue of Clemente and L.D. Astorino & Associates, Ltd., served as the architect of the project.

WILLIE STARGELL

On September 29, 2000, the Pirates announced that a statue of Willie Stargell would be unveiled at the club's new home, PNC Park. The announcement was made during the last weekend of Pittsburgh's final games at Three Rivers Stadium.

Stargell, however, did not live to see the day he would be forever immortalized at the statue unveiling on April 7, 2001. After not being able to attend the unveiling ceremony because of an illness, the Hall-of-Famer passed away in the early morning hours of April 9, the same day PNC Park officially opened its doors to begin a new era of Pirates baseball.

The 12-foot bronze statue stands along Federal Street at the entrance to left field at PNC Park. At the base of the statue is a quote from Stargell: "Last night, coming in from the airport, we came through the tunnel and the city opened up its arms and I felt at home." Also throughout the base of the statue are "Stargell stars," which the Pirates all-time home run leader handed out to his teammates towards the conclusion of his 21-year playing career with Pittsburgh.

RALPH KINER

The Pirates unveiled a sculpture of Hall-of-Fame outfielder Ralph Kiner at PNC Park on April 7, 2003, as part of the club's opening day festivities. It is located behind the bleacher seats in left field, along the main level of the ballpark.

Kiner played for the Pirates for just seven seasons (1946-1952), but still ranks second on the club's all-time home run list behind Willie Stargell. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975 and had his No. 4 jersey retired by the Pirates in 1987. Kiner holds many club records and is still one of only three National League players to ever hit eight home runs in one week.

The club announced it would immortalize the former slugger in March of 2003. Kiner won or shared the National League home run title in each of his seven seasons with Pittsburgh, a streak still unmatched in either league. The hands and bat were sculpted by Susan Wagner, the lady who also designed the Roberto Clemente and Willie Stargell statues.

HIGHMARK LEGACY SQUARE

Highmark Legacy Square is a one-of-a-kind permanent interactive exhibit built to honor and preserve the history of the Negro Leagues (1920-1958) and the great players from the Homestead Grays and Pittsburgh Crawfords.

The exhibit is located inside the Left Field Gate Entrance at PNC Park, and is unlike anything else found in Major League Baseball. The multiple elements of the interactive experience share the inspiring story of the remarkable people who helped revolutionize the sports and business world in their own way.

The exhibit features life-size bronze statues of former Negro Leagues greats Cool Papa Bell, Oscar Charleston, Josh Gibson, Judy Johnson, Buck Leonard, Satchel Paige and Smokey Joe Williams. Each statue is accompanied by an interactive kiosk allowing fans to view a personal video and learn about the player's background, Hall of Fame honors and playing statistics.

The highlight of the exhibit is the Highmark Legacy Square Theatre, an indoor 25 seat movie theatre that presents the legacy of the Negro Leagues on many interactive levels. The film, which is narrated by Major League Baseball Hall of Famer and current ESPN personality Joe Morgan, is a blend of historical narrative, rare movie footage and first person interviews with journalist Mal Goode, local baseball legend Harold Tinker, Negro Leagues and Major League player Monte Irwin, Pittsburgh Crawfords player Clarence Bruce and Cumberland Posey's daughter, Oldie Posey Striblin.

BILL MAZEROSKI STATUE

As part of the 50th anniversary season of the 1960 World Series Championship, the Pirates announced plans on January 29, 2010, to erect a statue of Hall-of-Fame second baseman Bill Mazeroski.

The 12-foot bronze statue is expected to be officially unveiled on September 5, 2010, and will stand at the end of Mazeroski Way, which is located at the right field entrance to PNC Park. Susan Wagner, who sculpted the Roberto Clemente, Willie Stargell and Ralph Kiner statues located around the ballpark, also produced this likeness of Maz.

Mazeroski remains the only player in Major League Baseball history to hit a game-winning home run in Game 7 of a World Series. His blast off New York's Ralph Terry on October 13, 1960, gave the Bucs a 10-9 victory in the deciding game played at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh.

Elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2001, the Pirates retired Mazeroski's uniform #9 in 1987. He was a seven-time All-Star and holds numerous Major League record for second basemen, including most seasons leading the league in assists (nine), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,706).

BOLD DENOTES HIT AS A PIRATE

GREG BROWN

Play-by-Play Announcer

Greg Brown is in his 17th season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates, one of only six with at least 15 years of service behind the mic for the Bucs on radio.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh's broadcast team, he spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association (now International League) as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. Brown also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for five seasons (1989-93). Also during his time in Buffalo, Brown served as a play-by-play announcer for University of Buffalo basketball on WGR Radio and as a broadcaster for the Empire TV Sports Network.

Greg's association with the Pirates actually began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Brown is a native of Washington, D.C. He currently resides in Leet Township with his wife Kim and son Ryan (11).

TIM NEVERETT

Play-by-Play Announcer

Tim Neverett joined the Pittsburgh broadcast team on December 18, 2008 and is in his second season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the club.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Neverett spent four years working for FSN Rocky Mountain, where he spent the 2008 campaign serving as both the pre-game and post-game studio host for Colorado Rockies games. During his tenure with FSN Rocky Mountain, Tim also served as a play-by-play announcer for Rockies games, college football, basketball, hockey and lacrosse, as well as arena football and track and field. In addition, he served as the VERSUS Network's national college basketball play by play voice, while also working a number of the network's college football games.

Neverett was also one of the original play-by-play and studio voices for the mtn, The Mountain West Conference Sports Network, where he called a number of football and basketball games along with hosting a weekly roundtable studio show. In addition, Tim worked as a weekend talk show host for the nationally syndicated Sporting News Radio Network, where his show was heard on over 160 stations nationwide. He also served as a Sports Talk Host for ESPN 560 in Denver, Colorado, where he was named the 2005 Best Radio Sports-Talk Host by Westword magazine in its annual "Best of Denver" issue.

Neverett also called baseball, softball, basketball and soccer during the 2004 Athens Olympics and 2008 Beijing Olympics. During the 2002 Salt Lake City Olympics and 2006 Olympic Games in Torino he handled play-by-play duties for hockey and numerous skiing events. The multi-national feeds were seen in more than 100 countries.

Prior to his time in Denver, Neverett lived in Las Vegas, where he called games on radio and TV for the Padres and Dodgers Triple-A teams. He also served as the play-by-play voice for Las Vegas' International Hockey League team for five seasons, then added college baseball and football at UNLV to his duties.

Neverett began his baseball broadcasting career in 1985 with Pittsburgh's Double-A affiliate in the Eastern League. At the age of 19, he had the opportunity to fill in calling radio play-by-play of Nashua Pirates games, which led to more innings and ultimately a schedule of games that season.

Tim and his wife, Barbara, have three sons; Matthew (15), Kyle (13) and Drew (10). He is a graduate of Emerson College in Boston where he lettered in baseball for four seasons.

STEVE BLASS

Color Analyst

The 2010 season marks Steve Blass' 51st year of involvement with the Pirates. He has been associated with the club since signing his first professional contract on June 27, 1960.

A right-handed pitcher, Blass made his professional debut with Kingport in 1960 and his Major league debut with the Bucs on May 10, 1964. He joined the big league team permanently in 1966 and went on to pitch a total of 10 seasons in the Majors, compiling a 103-76 record, 57 complete games and 16 shutouts in 282 games (231 starts). Steve ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896).

In his third full season in the Majors in 1968, Steve went 18-6, leading the league with a .750 winning percentage while positing a 2.12 ERA, 12 complete games and a career-high seven shutouts. His 2.12 ERA ranked fifth in the N.L. as St. Louis' Bob Gibson led the circuit with a 1.12 ERA.

During a five-year span from 1968 thru 1972, Blass was one of the best pitchers in the National League as he compiled a 78-44 record, 50 complete games and a 3.05 ERA. He won a career-high 19 games in 1972 and was named to the National League All-Star team that season.

In the 1971 World Series against the Baltimore Orioles, Blass recorded two complete game victories, allowing only seven hits and two runs in 18 innings of work. He finished second in the voting for World Series MVP behind teammate Roberto Clemente and remains the last National League pitcher to throw a complete game in Game Seven of a World Series.

After retiring following the 1974 season, Blass remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business, while continuing to do community service for the ballclub.

In 1983, he worked with the legendary and Hall of Fame broadcaster Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment. Blass officially joined the Pittsburgh Pirates radio broadcast crew in 1986.

For the sixth straight season, Steve will work only those games played at PNC Park. He will continue in his role as an analyst on both radio and TV. Only Lanny Frattare (33 years) and Bob Prince (28) have spent more years behind the microphone than Steve (24).

A native of Canaan, CT, Steve and his wife Karen live in Upper St. Clair. They have two sons, David and Christopher, and five grandchildren. In 2002, Steve became the 13th recipient of the "Pride of the Pirates" award, a yearly honor (since 1990) which recognizes a member of the Pirates family who has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service.

On September 10, 2009, Steve defied the astronomical odds and recorded a pair of holes-in-one in the same round of golf. According to Golf Digest, the odds of a golfer making two aces in the same round are one in 67 million.

BOB WALK

Color Analyst

After spending 14 seasons in a Major League uniform, Bob Walk is in his 17th season as a member of the Pirates broadcast crew. He joins Greg Brown as being one of only six men with at least 15 years of service behind the mic for the Bucs on radio.

The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of his 14 years pitching in the Major Leagues with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his big league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against Kansas City.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bob was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. One of his finest moments in a Pirates uniform came in 1992 when he pitched a 7-1, complete-game victory over the Atlanta Braves in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie. They have three sons; Tommy (30), Johnny (27) and Ronny (20). Tommy and his wife, Dominique, are the proud parents of daughters Makayla (7) and Kylie (4).

JOHN WEHNER

Color Analyst

Pittsburgh native John Wehner joined the Pirates broadcast team prior to the 2005 season. He serves as an analyst on both radio and TV, working all road games and a handful of games played at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.

Entering the 2010 campaign, John has spent a total of 19 seasons in the Pittsburgh organization (1988-1996, 1999-2001 and 2003-2009). Prior to being named to the broadcast team, John spent time as a coach with the Double-A Altoona Curve (2002-2004) after serving the Pirates as a special instructor during spring training in 2002.

He saw his last action in the Major Leagues with the Pirates in 2001. He hit the last home run in the history of Three Rivers Stadium on October 1, 2000 off Chicago's Jon Lieber and also made the final out. In 11 seasons in the Major Leagues, John compiled a .249 batting average, hit four home runs and collected 54 RBI in 461 games. In addition, he shares the Major League record of playing 99 consecutive errorless games at third base (also Jeff Cirillo).

Wehner is a graduate of Pittsburgh's Carrick High School and attended the University of Indiana, where he played baseball for three years. He resides in Cranberry Township, PA, with his wife Wendy. The couple has four children; sons Tyler (18) and Brandon (16) and daughters Hailey (11) and Hannah (7).

The best relievers in baseball

When it comes to treating athletic injuries, there are no better relievers in baseball than the sports medicine specialists at Allegheny General Hospital.

As the official medical provider of the Pittsburgh Pirates, our physicians are nationally acclaimed. Baseball Prospectus has recognized the Pittsburgh Pirates with its annual Dick Martin Award for having the "best medical staff" in the game.

And our physicians provide that same care for amateur and scholastic athletes, as well. To find out more, call 1-877-660-6777 or 412-359-3895.
